Students whose Code of Conduct infraction warrants a disciplinary school transfer are assigned to an AEDY Transition Program, an alternative school setting designed to support students with academic and social/emotional development in a smaller, supportive environment.

Students receive:

- PA Common Core Instruction
- Character, Social/Emotional Learning
- Counseling & Referrals
- Personalized Learning/Transition Plan
- Supportive Services
- Low Student/Staff Ratio

Students are only referred through the EH21 / disciplinary transfer process.

Transition Programs are governed by the Pennsylvania Department of Education's Alternative Education for Disruptive Youth Guidelines
