WHO WE ARE

The School District of Philadelphia's Re-Engagement Center (REC) aims to provide students who have previously dropped out (or those in-school and at risk of dropping out) with the chance to return to school by offering a range of "educational pathways". These pathways are designed to assist students by providing a "best fit path" to earn their high school diploma & prepare students for successful postsecondary experiences.

HOW DO I FIND MY PATH TO RE-ENGAGEMENT?

RE-ENGAGEMENT CENTER

The Re-Engagement Center is a "one-stop" shop that provides counseling, direct placement services, & information leading to re-enrollment in a high school diploma or GED program. The Re-Engagement Center offers several program types, giving students a variety of options for completing their graduation requirements. We help get students "Back on Track" toward high school graduation!

Discover the variety of educational programs available for students ages 15 and older who have dropped out of school or are behind in credits.

Communicate with knowledgeable & supportive professionals who will help you select the right program.

Learn how to connect to high demand resources such as childcare, employment, housing, and much more!

ACCELERATED HIGH SCHOOL PROGRAMS

Students who want to get back on track & graduate within three years or less may seek to enroll in an Accelerated High School program.

Interested students must:

- Be at least 15 and not yet 22 years old.
- Be at least two years behind in school.
- Have earned 13.5 or fewer high school credits.
