Department of Energy (DOE) – Program Office
1. Environment and Efficiency: Fund at least $10 billion for energy efficiency and efficiency-related equipment, or to increase 20% in energy efficiency, sustainable energy, and advanced vehicle technologies and to protect public health. Eligible entities include states, local governments, and public agencies, tribes, scientific research institutions, and non-profit organizations. The program will support energy efficiency improvements and alternative vehicle technologies. DOE.gov

300 Million Available with expanded

National Science Foundation
1. NSF's FY 2022 budget includes $5.5 billion for research and education in science and engineering, including $2.5 billion for ERCs.

5.5 Billion Available with expanded

NASA
1. The NASA Space Launch System (SLS) program seeks to develop a new heavy-lift vehicle capable of carrying a wide range of payloads beyond low Earth orbit. The SLS is a key component of NASA's explored missions and will support future exploration objectives. NASA.gov

15 Billion Available with expanded

Department of Transportation (DOT)
1. The Bipartisan Infrastructure Law provides for the Construction of the Nation's Railroad System. The DOT will work with states, tribes, and metropolitan planning organizations to develop plans and specifications for the construction of new and expanded rail lines. DOT.gov

$2.8 Billion Available with expanded

Environmental Protection Agency (EPA)
1. EPA is working with states, tribes, and community partners to reduce lead exposure and promote healthy communities through the Lead Pipe and Lead Paint program. EPA.gov

$3 Billion Available with expanded

Department of Education (ED)
1. ED is working with states, districts, and local community partners to reduce lead exposure and promote healthy communities through the Lead Pipe and Lead Paint program. ED.gov

$3 Billion Available with expanded

Coronavirus State and Local Fiscal Recovery Fund
1. The Coronavirus State and Local Fiscal Recovery Fund (S&LFRF) provides states and eligible local governments with flexibly allocated funds to help support state, local, and Tribal responses to the COVID-19 pandemic and its consequences. S&LFRF.gov

$350 Billion Available with expanded

Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD)
1. HUD is working with states and local communities to provide assistance to individuals and families affected by the COVID-19 pandemic. HUD.gov

$85 Billion Available with expanded

Department of Treasury
1. Treasury is working with states and local communities to provide assistance to individuals and families affected by the COVID-19 pandemic. Treasury.gov

$1.9 Trillion Available with expanded

Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD)
1. HUD is working with states and local communities to provide assistance to individuals and families affected by the COVID-19 pandemic. HUD.gov

$350 Billion Available with expanded