Photo No. 10 – A typical surface mounted low pressure steam radiator located in the cafeteria/gym areas.
Photo No. 11 – An existing surface mounted low pressure steam radiator located in the gym common area.
Photo No. 12 – A typical surface mounted low pressure Steam radiator located in the corridor area.
Vare Washington Elementary School – Major Mechanical Renovation

Photo No. 13 – A typical surface mounted low pressure Steam radiator located in the classroom
Photo No. 14 – A typical low pressure steam surface mounted corner radiator located in a classroom.
Photo No. 15 – A typical surface mounted low pressure Steam radiator located in the classroom
Photo No. 16 – An atypical elevated wall mounted low pressure steam radiator
Photo No. 17 – Existing surface mounted low pressure steam radiator located in the corridor.
Photo No. 18 – Existing recessed low pressure steam Radiator located on the exterior wall of the auditorium
Vare Washington Elementary School – Major Mechanical Renovation

Photo No. 19 – Existing recessed wall mounted
Low pressure steam radiator located behind the auditorium stage.
Photo No. 20 – Existing Low Pressure recessed Wall Mounted Steam Radiators Located Behind the Auditorium Stage Area
Photo No. 21 – Existing Bathroom Surface Wall Mounted
Low Pressure Steam Radiators
Photo No. 22 – Existing Cafeteria Ceiling Mounted Low Pressure Steam Radiators