*Renaissance or neighborhood charter schools. Renaissance Charter Schools are schools that were formerly operated by the District and are now managed by a charter operator. Each school remains in the same building and serves as a neighborhood school for students in the same catchment as when the school was operated by the District.

Charter schools listed with a (✓) are participating in the Apply Philly Charter standard application, which can be accessed at www.applyphillycharter.org or via phone at 1-800-891-3999. Contact other schools directly for information on their application process. For more information on each charter school or how to enroll in a charter school, visit our website at philasd.org/charterschools. You can also find information via Great Philly Schools (greatphillyschools.org) or by contacting the school directly.
