Cunnane, K. Depp in the Sahara. Dragonfly Books. 2013. An Arab girl of the Sahara who wants to wear a malafa, the veiled dress worn by her mother and older sister, learns that the garment represents beauty, mystery, tradition, belonging, and faith.

de la Peña, M. Last Stop on Market Street. Putnam. 2015. Every Sunday after church, CJ and his grandma ride the bus across town. But today, CJ wonders why they don’t own a car like his friend Colby. Why doesn’t he have an iPod like the boys on the bus? How come they always have to get off in the dirty part of town? Each question is met with an encouraging answer from grandma, who helps him see the beauty -- and fun -- in their routine and the world around them.

Diaz, J. Islandborn. Dial. 2018. Lola was just a baby when her family left the Island, so when she has to draw it for a school assignment, she asks her family, friends, and neighbors about their memories of her homeland ... and in the process, comes up with a new way of understanding her own heritage.

Let’s Read!

Summer reading is necessary for students to continue using good literacy practice beyond school. It’s also a great way to spend time together! Many of the titles on the list are available to borrow for free at the Free Library of Philadelphia. Check the website at www.freelibrary.org for locations, book title availability, and other great summer programs for students.
