Message from the Principal

Welcome to D. Newlin Fell School! D. Newlin Fell School is a historic school building located in the East Oregon neighborhood of South Philadelphia. We are a neighborhood school that serves students from various backgrounds in grades kindergarten through eight.

Our culturally and linguistically diverse student population creates a rich, multicultural school community where Asian, Latino, Arabic, African-American and Caucasian children live tolerance and respect on a daily basis.

At D. Newlin Fell School, the subject area teachers are full-time and highly qualified. Most of our staff members have over ten years of teaching experience and have taught at our school for just as many years. The extensive expertise and experience among our staff members promotes mentoring, cross-collaboration and teamwork throughout our school.

Further, we always stays on the cutting edge of educational practices in order to best serve our students. This atmosphere of ongoing learning generates an energetic, rigorous learning environment and an unparalleled educational experience for all our students!

Omahr Ashe,

Principal
