

All students are seen each year in a conference. During the conference each student is weighed and measured and is given a vision test. Students in grade 7 are screened for scoliosis. Selected students are given a hearing test. Written reports that deviate from the norm are sent home to the parent. Parents are asked to contact the nurse by a phone call or note after a doctor has evaluated the student.