

Career Education and Work Internet Resources

Resource Name	Internet Address	Description	Notes & Levels
A Guide to PA Post-Secondary Career Schools	www.papsa.org	Provides helpful information about career education and career schools. Access information by county/region, career area, or specific school.	High School Career Colleges and schools
Accounting & Financial Jobs	www.financialjobs.com	Employer listings devoted solely to financial professionals at all levels of careers ranging from staff positions to mid-management to CFO's.	High School Undergraduate Post-bachelors
America's Job Bank	www.ajb.dni.us	Sponsored by the Public Employment Service, this site has information on jobs available all over the country with information for employers and job seekers.	Any other level of schooling to post resume or used by employers. High school College Graduate school
American Careers	www.carcom.com	Career exploration and curriculum materials.
American Counseling Association	www.counseling.org/	As a professional counselor or counselor educator, you are the linchpin to helping clients and students with the challenges that they face each and every day. For more than fifty years, the American Counseling Association has dedicated itself to helping you with the resources, services, products and information you need to be successful.	College graduates Graduate school Present counselors
Association for Women in Science	www.awis.org	Dedicated to achieving equity and full participation for women in science, mathematics, engineering and technology.	Women or men bachelor graduates Over 50% AWIS members are of doctorate level.
Best Jobs USA	http://www.bestjobsusa.com/	Employment reviews, a list of the best places to live and work in the US. Also a career guide, resume posting, job fairs, and career advice.
Bureau of Labor Statistics Occupational Outlook Handbook	http://www.bls.gov/ooh/home.htm	A nationally recognized source of labor statistics and career information.

Resource Name	Internet Address	Description	Notes & Levels
Career Counseling Competencies (NCDA)	www.ncda.org	NCDA is the recognized leader in developing standards for both career counseling and the evaluation of career information materials. NCDA works with licensing and credentialing bodies to support the recognition of career counselors and career development facilitators. NCDA also sets ethical standards for the field including guidelines for the provision of career services on the Internet.	Graduate level Present counselors
Career Cruising	www.careercruising.com	A comprehensive and interactive career guidance guide available on CD-ROM and the internet. Career Cruising includes career profiles, multimedia interviews with real workers, career search tools, a web-based portfolio, and a comprehensive database of colleges and universities.
Career Discovery	www.careerexplorer.com	A career discovery search engine for students, counselors.
Career Exploration for Kids	www.surfnetkids.com/career.htm	Contains assessment and sites involved with career choices for kids.
Career Explorer.Net	www.careerexplorer.net/	A career choice and planning site with information on the types of careers available and how to choose them
Career Focus 2000	http://www.iccweb.com/	A 180-item inventory that helps to identify possible career goals that match strong personal interests.
Career Games	www.careergames.com/index.html	This site features several workshops and games that facilitate the PIE career development method practiced by Daniel Porot, a leading European pioneer in career design and job hunting
Career Key	www.careerkey.org/english/	A free resource and assessment to help with career choice, college choice, and choosing academic or career training. Contains a detailed interest inventory, results, and career information.
Career Net	www.careers.org	A directory of over 7,000 links to jobs, job search preparation, education, personal business and more, sorted by topic and region, onto more than 500 pages
Career One Stop	www.careeronestop.org	This web site is designed to provide information on high-growth, high-demand occupations along with the skills and education needed to attain those jobs. Start exploring career options—whether you are in high school, have graduated, have a 2-year or 4-year degree, or have knowledge and skills acquired through training centers, on-the-job training, or work experience.	High school College Graduate school

Resource Name	Internet Address	Description	Notes & Levels
Career One Stop Videos	http://www.careeronestop.org/videos/careerandclustervideos/career-and-cluster-videos.aspx	Career videos of broad industry areas (Career Clusters) as well as videos of specific careers within each broad industry area.
Career Park	www.careerpark.com	Offers employment opportunities with some of the world's most respected and fastest growing employers.	High school College Graduate school
Career Path	http://careerpath.com	An indispensable resource for anyone who is looking for employment in or near any major US city. Includes the Sunday job listings from The New York Times , The Washington Post , Chicago Tribune , Los Angeles Times , The Boston Globe , and several other big city daily newspapers.	High school College Graduate school
Career Toolbox	www.myfuture.com/t2_ctoolbox.html	This site contains all the "tools" needed to get you headed in the right direction for your career, especially for those considering the military
CareerLink	www.pacareerlink.state.pa.us	PA's one-step on-line resource for job seeker services, employer services, social services and training.	High school College Graduate school
Careers in Science and Technology	http://sln.fi.edu/careers/careers_flash.html	Students can select one of the professionals (Science Teacher, Geologist, Meteorologist, Chemist, Computer Administrator) and find out what it is like to have that job. Students follow their chosen professional through a day at work
Careers in Science Webquest	http://teach.fcps.net/trt10/Webquests/ScienceCareers.htm	A web quest for high school students on careers in the sciences.
CISS – Campbell Interest and Skill Survey	www.usnews.com/usnews/edu/careers/cccss.htm	The CISS uses targeted questions and analysis to help you understand how to fit into the world of work.
Construct My Future	www.constructmyfuture.com	Career exploration for construction occupations.
Could This Be Your Life?	www.ncrctv.com/index.asp	An interactive game to facilitate exploration of nontraditional careers for students. The game is linked to high demand occupations in NJ based on the "Ready for the Job" research. Fun!
Developing Career Goals (Cornell Career Services),	http://www.career.cornell.edu/	Career exploration.

Resource Name	Internet Address	Description	Notes & Levels
Diversity career center	www.iminorities.com	Provides career self-development information to all minorities. The Minorities Job Bank contains the largest databank of EOE committed to workplace diversity.	High school College College graduates
Eco-Employ	www.ecoemploy.com/	Environmental jobs and careers. Sections include: Special Opportunities, Government Jobs, Environmental Agencies, Employer Web Site Directory, Resume Tips, Career Information and more
EducationPlanner.org	www.educationplanner.org	EducationPlanner.org is a great site for college application, financial aid information, campus descriptions and more.	High school
Exploring	www.learning-for-life.org/	A worksite-based program, Exploring is part of Learning for Life's career education program for young men and women who are 14 (and have completed the eighth grade) through 20 years old. Provides experiences that help young people mature and prepares them to become responsible and caring adults. Explorers are ready to investigate the meaning of interdependence in their personal relationships and communities.	Middle school through age 20 Middle school High school College Freshmen College Sophomore
Exploring Career Information form the Bureau of Labor Statistics	www.bls.gov/k12/	The kids' site is designed to give a quick introduction to a career, the information provided is general. For example, the most common way of preparing for an occupation is described, while other, less common, methods of entry might be mentioned only briefly or not at all. In the same way, the earnings figures given are representative and might not illustrate the variety of earnings found in an occupation. The Occupational Outlook Handbook gives more precise and detailed information.
Exploring Occupations	www.umanitoba.ca/counselling/careers.html#o	Click on the Occupation for links about information on a large number of occupations.
Federal Student Aid (for Counselors)	www.ifap.ed.gov	The High School Counselor's Handbook describes the student financial aid programs administered by the U.S. Department of Education. It includes an extensive section on completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid and lists useful telephone numbers, publications and web sites about student aid.	High school counselors Career counselors
FirstGov for Kids	http://kids.usa.gov/jobs/index.shtml	Find out about jobs for kids who like Arts, Science, Outdoors, Social Studies, Reading, Math and more. There's also an A - Z List of Careers from the Bureau of Labor Statistics

Resource Name	Internet Address	Description	Notes & Levels
Geoscience Career Webquest	www.earthsciweek.org/webquest/	A web quest on careers in the geosciences.
Hottest Career for College Graduates	https://bigfuture.collegeboard.org/explore-careers/careers/hottest-careers-for-college-graduates	Wondering where the hot jobs are? Visit this site to find out.	High school College Graduate school Counselors
Information for Counselors (ACT)	http://www.act.org/k12/	Helping young people succeed—that's what the job of a high school counselor is all about. By guiding students through the complex transition from adolescence into adulthood, counselors shape the future of society.	College Counselors Teachers Administrators
ISEEK	www.iseek.org/	Minnesota's one stop gateway to education, employment, and career resources.
Job Bank USA	www.jobbankusa.com	Specializes in providing employment networking and information services to job candidates, employers and recruitment firms.	High school College
Job Hunt	www.job-hunt.org	A mega list of on-line job search resources and services.	High school College
Job Search and Career Advice	http://www.truecareers.com/	Contains a comprehensive listing of job fairs throughout the USA and a job database that offers 125,000+ openings.	High school College Graduate school
Jobs for the Future	www.jff.org	Seeks to accelerate the educational and economic advancement of youth and adults struggling in our economy.	High school College
Job-Star Job Search Guide	http://jobstar.org/	"How-to" information for job seekers anywhere.
Keys 2 Work	www.keys2work.org	Provides a web-based assessment of student abilities in; applied math, locating information, and reading for information; interests related to careers; and documentation to improve skill abilities.
Kids and the Power of Work	www.kapow.org	A program of the National Child Labor Committee, Kapow is a national network of business and elementary school partnerships which introduces students to career awareness through professionally developed lessons taught by business volunteers in the classroom.	Elementary level

Resource Name	Internet Address	Description	Notes & Levels
Know It All	www.knowitall.org/kidswork/	Knowitall.org is ETV's educational Web portal, a collection of fun, interactive websites for K-12 students, teachers and parents. Created by ETV for K-12 students, teachers, and parents, Knowitall.org is a free, online collection of resources designed for classroom use. This educational web portal contains interactive sites, simulations, image collections, virtual field trips and streaming video that support and provide quality inquiry-based experiences for students on the Internet.
Major and Career Search	https://bigfuture.collegeboard.org/majors-careers	This site is designed to help high school students gain career awareness. It includes a career questionnaire and organizes information about careers by career clusters.
Mapping Your Future	http://mappingyourfuture.org/	A one stop site for students and parents with information on financial strategies, career options, and career planning
Military Career Guide	www.todaysmilitary.com/mc/t13_mc_milcar.php	A U.S. Department of Defense resource on over 4100 military careers.
Mind Tools	www.mindtools.com	Mind Tools outlines important life and career skills in easy to understand language. These are supported by simple examples and exercises that expand and reinforce your understanding. Mind Tools outlines more than 100 of the most important thinking skills in nine essential areas.
Monster Board	www.monster.com	Job search information, resume building and employer profiles.	High school College graduates
My Future	www.myfuture.com/	Information on military careers, post high school planning, and a comprehensive career toolbox with assessments. For students and parents.
National Society of Professional Engineers	www.nspe.org	A forum for young engineers and students looking for guidance from engineers in the field.
National Youth Employment Coalition	www.nyec.org	A non-partisan national organization dedicated to promoting policies and initiatives that help youth succeed in becoming lifelong learners, productive workers and self-sufficient citizens.	High school College
New York State Career Zone	www.nycareerzone.org/index.jsp	Sponsored by the State of New York Department of Labor and hosted by AT&T, this site offers a cluster-approach to career exploration based on the Holland organization scheme. Information on specific jobs can also be sorted by years of training required.
O*NET Online	http://online.onetcenter.org	Occupational information network.	High school College

Resource Name	Internet Address	Description	Notes & Levels
PA Apprentice Coordinators Association	www.apprentice.org	Helps students decide if they have the aptitude and ability to train for a career in the construction industry.	High school Vocational school student
PA Association for Student Financial Aid Administrators	www.pasfaa.org	PASFAA is a professional organization established to encourage and assist the professional preparation, effectiveness and recognition of student financial aid administrators in postsecondary educational institutions and to assist secondary school counselors and administrators interested in the development of student financial aid programs.	High school College
PA Department of Education	www.pde.state.pa.us	PDE's website contains information for Pennsylvania's schools, teachers, parents and students.	High school College graduates looking for graduate school
PA Free Enterprise Week	www.pfew.org	An intensive program that educates high school students about the American free enterprise system.	High school
PA HRIC, Team PA	www.teampa.com	Business resource network.	College
PA Labor Market Information	http://www.dli.state.pa.us/	The Center for Workforce Information and Analysis is PA's designated provider of employment statistics.
Pathway Pals	www.pathway-pals.com	Pathway pals is a great guidance counselor website! Age appropriate and easy-to-use counselor resources guidance materials by counselors... "for" counselors. Use pictures to find you favorite Career Pathway or Career Cluster. Middle School Interest Survey Focus Is Pathways High School Interest Survey Focus Is Career Clusters
PHEAA	www.pheaa.org	Preparing today's youth for successful careers tomorrow, this site is full of activities and information for students, parents, teachers and counselors.	High school
Postsecondary Education Opportunity	www.postsecondary.org	Information for those who formulate, fund and administer public policy and programs about the condition of and influences that affect postsecondary education opportunity for all Americans.	High school College College graduates
Quintessential Careers	www.quintcareers.com/index.html	Information on choosing and planning a career.
Roger Taylor Integrated Curriculum	www.rogertaylor.com	This unique model includes specific application of the most recent brain research, multiple intelligences and constructivist hands-on project-centered learning in alignment with state defined benchmarks and standards	College Graduate schools

Resource Name	Internet Address	Description	Notes & Levels
Role Model Project For Girls	www.womenswork.org/girls/careers.htm	A "sampler" of careers for women, from the arts to trades.
Rubistar—Rubrics for Educators	www.rubistar.org	Great resource links and rubrics for educators.	College Graduate school
Self-Directed Search	www.self-directed-search.com/	The SDS has been used by over 22 million people worldwide and has also been translated into 25 different languages. SDS results have been supported by over 500 research studies. The SDS was developed by Dr. John Holland, whose theory of careers is the basis for most of the career inventories used today. Holland's theory states that most people can be loosely categorized with respect to six types: Realistic, Investigative, Artistic, Social, Enterprising, and Conventional
Student Transition Alliance	www.studenttransitions.com	Follow seven recent high school graduates, each form unique backgrounds and diverse walks of life, as they explore new adventures and experience life after high school.	High school College
The National Career Development Guidelines	www.ericdigests.org	ERIC summarizes major activities of the National Career Development Guidelines initiative and suggests resources for those who wish to use the Guidelines.	High school College Graduate school Counselors
The Office of Personnel Management	www.opm.gov	Handy way to keep tabs on federal government job openings and salaries, from summer work to full-time careers.	High school College College graduates
The Princeton Review	www.princetonreview.com/	A good site for information on practicing for your SAT's, on taking your LSAT's or MCAT's, on choosing a school and on the college admissions process.	High school College Graduate schools
U.S. Department of Labor	www.dol.gov	Find jobs by topic, audience, top 20 items, by form and by location.	High school College
University of Waterloo Career Development Manual	www.cdm.uwaterloo.ca/index.asp	The Career Development e-manual is designed to help you consider these questions
Vocational Information Center	www.khake.com	Explore vocational and technical careers, check out the skills employers really want, find a trade school, research technical topics and take a look at the current job market.	Middle school High school College
Vocational Research Institute	www.vri.org	Career aptitude and interest assessment, career planning and development, and educational resources. Includes Career Scope, APTICOM, Work Place Mentor ES-TIP, VITAS, and print resources

Resource Name	Internet Address	Description	Notes & Levels
What Do They Do?	www.whatdotheydo.com	A look at what people do at work. Includes a long list of careers from Accountant to Veterinarian. For elementary students
What You Are	www.dowhatyouare.com	From Bridges.com, this site is a unique and powerful web-based career and college guidance solution based on the proven science of Personality Type. This program provides you and your students with critical information needed in the counseling process.	Middle school High school Counselors
Wonderlic	www.wonderlic.com/	Employment recruiting, retention, and assessment resources.
Workforce New Jersey Public Information Network (WNJPIN),	www.njpin.net	State of New Jersey Employment Information Network for jobseekers, career explorers, and employers with links to many other sites.
XAP.com Plan A Career	www.xap.com/	Evaluate interests, skills, personality and values to help determine possible career choices.	Middle school High school College