

When are Senior Cap & Gown Portraits going to happen?

Our school is still working out how to make this work so that every senior has the opportunity to get a cap and gown portrait. A lot depends on how the reopening of the schools will work out.

Normally schools contract with a company and students travel to a studio – or the studio comes to the school. We are fortunate to have a studio in our school. The problem is that, for now, we are not able to get into the school. All of this will change very soon. We are asking you to please be patient and keep listening and checking here for an update.

Once we have a plan in place we will let all of our seniors and their parents know how we will organize this.
