Various Funds: $1,607,360 Contract with Cornerstone OnDemand, Inc. – Professional Development and Evaluation Tool
RESOLVED, that the School Reform Commission authorizes The School District of Philadelphia, through the Superintendent, or his designee, to execute, deliver and perform a contract with Cornerstone OnDemand Inc. for the Professional Development & Educator Evaluation tool for teachers, principals and non-instructional professionals, for an amount not to exceed $1,750,000, for the period commencing August 18, 2017 through June 30, 2022.

Description: Great schools have great teachers and leaders. To deliver on this promise of great schools for students and families, we must identify what great teachers and leaders are, evaluate teachers and leaders against core competencies and skills, and provide teachers and leaders with targeted professional development. Every year, the School District of Philadelphia evaluates and develops over 300 school leaders, 9,000 teachers, and 800 non-instructional staff members.

Act 82, passed by the Pennsylvania Department of Education (PDE) in 2012, requires that all educators are evaluated on multiple measures of effectiveness. The Educator Effectiveness System established a statewide, comprehensive rating system for teachers, administrators and non-teaching professional employees based on traditional classroom observations and multiple measures of student achievement. Act 82 requires that the District establish and maintain a permanent record system containing ratings for each employee, as well as regular reporting of aggregate evaluation data results to PDE. To comply with these regulations, and facilitate a timely, high-quality educator evaluation system, the District requires a proven technology solution.

The product currently used by the School District of Philadelphia for educator evaluation and professional development will sunset in June 2018. In response, a cross-functional team of District staff has identified a vendor to replace the expiring product and transfer all existing data into the new system.

To select a qualified vendor, the District issued a request for proposal (RFP 534) on March 6, 2017. Five vendors submitted proposals to the district’s Office of Procurement. Vendors were rated in areas of experience, expertise, technical & functional learning management and evaluation requirements, quality of services, pricing, and MWBE participation. The awarded vendor, Cornerstone OnDemand Inc., was selected based on an overall adherence to the services outlined in the RFP and scoring rubric. Cornerstone OnDemand Inc. has a proven track record of partnering with institutions to deliver programs and solutions that help leaders understand each employee's knowledge and abilities to easily and effectively: align organizational talent to institutional requirements; execute training and learning initiatives to address any skills gaps; and identify key successors for critical roles.

A robust technology solution is required to accommodate the large scale and scope of the District’s evaluation and professional learning needs.

Description: A RFP was issued on July 30, 2014 for a Benefits Consultant. The purpose of this contract is to support all benefit analysis needed for contract negotiations with our labor unions, support the Office of Management and Budget providing critical data for financial reporting and assist the Benefits Office with respect to mandatory ACA reporting and other benefit plan recommendations and changes. The contract was awarded for one year with options for two one-year renewals. Both one-year renewal options have been exercised but we recommend amending the contract for one additional year due to CSB’s integral involvement with the collective bargaining agreements and comprehensive analysis as well as the need for continuity of consulting services during this immediate time period. A RFP will be issued during the second quarter of 2018.

Operating Budget: $332,737 Ratification of Closing Agreement with Commissioner of Internal Revenue – Erroneous Redemption of Bonds

RESOLVED, that the School Reform Commission hereby ratifies the execution, delivery and performance by The School District of Philadelphia, through the General Counsel, of a Closing Agreement with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, in resolution of issues raised during the examination of $144,625,000 General Obligation Bonds, Series A of 2011 (QSCB - Federally Taxable - Direct Subsidy), a portion of which Bonds were erroneously redeemed by The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A., as Sinking Fund Depository and Fiscal Agent for the Bonds, for an amount not to exceed $332,737.

Description: On December 20, 2011, the School District issued its General Obligation Bonds, Series A of 2011 (Qualified School Construction Bonds-Federally Taxable-Direct Subsidy) (the "Bonds") in the principal amount of $144,625,000. The Bonds mature in the full principal amount thereof on September 1, 2030.

The Bonds were issued pursuant to a Resolution SRC -1, approved by the School Reform Commission on November 21, 2011 (the “Resolution”). Pursuant to the Resolution, the School District appointed The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A. to serve as Sinking Fund Depository and Fiscal Agent for the Bonds (the "Fiscal Agent"). On December 20, 2011, the School District and the Fiscal Agent entered into a Fiscal Agent Agreement, under which the Fiscal Agent accepted the trusts created by the Resolution and the duties and obligations of the Fiscal Agent as set forth in the Resolution and in the Fiscal Agent Agreement.

The Resolution provides that mandatory sinking fund installments be paid annually into the Sinking Fund for the Bonds (the "Sinking Fund") commencing September 1, 2014, to be held to pay the principal of the Bonds at maturity. Pursuant thereto, the School District transferred to the Fiscal Agent for deposit into the Sinking Fund on or before September 1, 2014, the sum of $7,400,000.

In violation of its duties and obligations under the Fiscal Agent Agreement and the Resolution, the Fiscal Agent caused Bonds in the principal amount of $7,400,000 to be erroneously redeemed on September 1, 2014. The Fiscal Agent has acknowledged that the redemption of the Bonds was made in error and initiated procedures through the clearing house for the Bonds, to reverse the redemption and reinstate the Bonds as of the date of their redemption.

As of October 22, 2015, holders of $6,860,000 in principal amount of the Bonds agreed to and have reinstated the Bonds owned by such holders, as of their date of redemption. The School District has made demand on the Fiscal Agent for indemnification for the erroneous redemption of the Bonds and for all costs and expenses incurred by the School District as a result thereof.

In its examination of the Bonds, the IRS asserted that the erroneous redemption by the Fiscal Agent of a portion of the Bonds and the subsequent reinstatement, constituted a reissuance of the reinstated Bonds, resulting in the permanent loss of the interest rate subsidy afforded to the Bonds which had been redeemed and reinstated.

Operating Budget: $242,000 Settlement of Federal Civil Action – Wanda Allen, Kim Rodgers, John Reese, & William Swain
RESOLVED, that the School Reform Commission authorizes The School District of Philadelphia, through the General Counsel, to enter into a Settlement Agreement with Wanda Allen, Kim Rodgers, John Reese and William Swain, in the amount of $242,000, in exchange for a general release of claims for damages for age discrimination on behalf of themselves and a putative class of approximately 160 current or former assistant principals.

Description: Suit was filed in 2015 by four former assistant principals on behalf of themselves and a putative class of approximately 160 current or former assistant principals, alleging damages for age discrimination. All assistant principals were laid off in 2013. Plaintiffs claim that the School District intentionally discriminated against older administrators with respect to the layoffs, recalls, promotions and hiring and violated its collective bargaining agreement.

After the pleadings were closed, but before discovery on the merits and on the collective action, the parties agreed to an early settlement conference, and this resolution provides authority for settlement.

The Charter School Resident will serve in the position of Director, Strategy and Sustainability where she will be responsible for knowledge management, process and procedure documentation, short and long term strategic planning, and in coordination with the respective Program Managers, development of tools for fostering high quality charter schools. The Director, Strategy and Sustainability will report to the Executive Director of the Charter Schools Office.

The Operations Division Resident will serve as the Executive Director of Procurement where he will be responsible for obtaining quality goods and services at competitive prices from responsible suppliers in accordance with the Pennsylvania School Code and Board Policies. The Executive Director of Procurement is also responsible for ensuring vendor diversity through oversight of the Small Business Development Unit and implementation of the District's Business Diversity Policy. The Executive Director of Procurement will report to the Chief Operating Officer.

A ratifying resolution is being submitted because the Residents were scheduled to start working for the District before the grant agreement with Broad could be finalized. Both positions are important to effective and efficient district operations. The District funding for the positions is available and is included in the approved FY2018 budgets of both offices.

Donation: $350,000 Acceptance of Donation of Services from New Leaders, Inc. – Assistant Superintendent Development

RESOLVED, that the School Reform Commission authorizes The School District of Philadelphia, through the Superintendent or his designee, to execute, deliver, and perform a Memorandum of Understanding with New Leaders, Inc., for an intensive professional development program for Assistant Superintendents, valued at approximately $350,000, for the period commencing August 18, 2017 through June 30, 2018.

Description: New Leaders will provide intensive professional development for the District's Assistant Superintendents through the 2017-18 school year. The development program will provide opportunities for guided practice, reflection and multiple sources of feedback. The specific activities will include Community of Practice ("CoP") sessions, learning walks, in-person observations, and individual check-ins.

The New Leaders program will formally kick-off in August 2017 with a full-day program overview and an initial CoP session. New Leaders will work with the School District to understand specific District programming and priorities, develop a sense of baseline skills and needs of the Assistant Superintendents, and align the program supports with other School District development and performance management activities.

Specifically, the development program will include:

1. Community of Practice (CoP) Sessions. There will be up to 12 sessions, including up to 9 sessions for Assistant Superintendents and up to 3 sessions for other School District executive leaders. This designated time is for Assistant Superintendents to engage in collegial, rigorous, transparent conversations and activities to support them to use data to diagnose and solve challenges, build common language around effective leadership and develop skills to support and develop school level leaders. These processes will:

--Help each individual and the group acquire core knowledge, skills and practices;
--Build collective capacity within the group and across the District; and
--Create a safe space where failure is an opportunity to grow and gain greater proficiency.

There is the potential for up to three sessions to be provided for School District executive leaders to support and strengthen the work with Assistant Superintendents. The District will work with New Leaders to determine the best way to provide the Executive Leadership sessions.

2. Learning Walks. There will be up to 7 learning walks to build a common definition of effective leadership, practice evidence collection, and calibrate the use of rubrics and observation tools and assessments of school performance. In advance of a learning walk, the Assistant Superintendent who is working with the principal of the school presents the school's data as well as the principal's goals and evidence they have collected up to that point in the year. At this point, the rest of the community of practice asks questions to identify focus areas for the visit. The school visit begins with a meeting where the principal describes what the group can expect to see during the visit, recent data, and areas that the school team has focused on during professional learning sessions. The team divides into pairs or trios to visit bands of classrooms. Following the classroom walk-throughs, each team outlines the evidence they observed and then presents it out to the rest of the team. At this point, the group begins to make meaning of the data by asking: What are the trends the group observed? What are outstanding questions the group has for the building leader? From the observations collected, the team then identifies and prioritizes three to five areas of feedback that the principal supervisor will share back with the building leader.

3. Assistant Superintendent Observations (at least 2 per Assistant Superintendent). New Leaders will observe Assistant Superintendents in-person as they (1) provide feedback to principals and (2) provide coaching on improving quality and delivery. New Leaders will then provide Assistant Superintendents with individual feedback from the observations to improve their practice.

4. Individual Check-ins (up to 10 monthly check-ins per Assistant Superintendent). Each month New Leaders will meet virtually with each Assistant Superintendent. The purpose of these check-ins is to learn more about how the Assistant Superintendents believe their work is progressing, hear individual updates, and provide individual support. The check-in also serves as an opportunity for the Assistant Superintendents to seek confidential advice from New Leaders. In addition to providing individual support, New Leaders will use these calls to identify trends across schools and use the information gathered to set agendas and determine topics for future CoP sessions. Through these activities, New Leaders will differentiate the content to meet the needs of both veteran and new Assistant Superintendents, who are making the transition from a successful school leader to a School District leader.

5. Templates of protocols. New Leaders will provide templates of protocols, job aids, and similar materials to be used for collecting, synthesizing and analyzing data that will support the work of Assistant Superintendents.

Operating Budget: $100,000 Contract with Cambridge Education – School Quality Reviews

RESOLVED, that the School Reform Commission authorizes The School District of Philadelphia, through the Superintendent or his designee, to execute, deliver and perform a contract with Cambridge Education, to develop, manage, and execute a School Quality Review process to gather data and develop qualitative reports on school quality in support of the School District's System of Great Schools process, for an amount not to exceed $100,000, for the period commencing September 1, 2017 through February 28, 2018.

Description: The School District of Philadelphia (the District) seeks to retain a consultant to conduct objective third party school quality reviews in a number of schools that have been identified as underperforming through the District's SGS process. The consultant's purpose will be to conduct an onsite review of school performance and to document and communicate the primary factors supporting and impeding learning at the school; to provide an orientation to the review process and associated rubrics for school principals; to produce a report outlining the factors that are supporting and impeding learning at each site; and to provide a macro-analysis of trends across school quality review sites for the District.

The visits will include the observation of teaching and staff meetings, conversations with staff, students and the principal, and reviews of school data and documents (including the school's comprehensive plan and most recent survey data). Based on reflections from last year's school quality review reports, the District has worked with the vendor to make enhancements to the report structure and content.

Enhancements to the report structure will include but not be limited to:

-- providing additional specific details in support of the major factors identified as supporting or impeding learning;

-- adjusting the rubric to create a distinction between the operational management of the school and the instructional leadership of the school;

-- providing additional details on each school's context, including student/teacher ratios and teacher vacancies;

-- providing additional details about the quality review process at each school, including grade levels visited, number of classrooms visited, subject areas observed, and length of time of classroom visits; and,

-- providing additional details on attendees at focus groups, including the number and roles of focus group attendees and the method by which they were selected.

The reviews will supplement other data that is available regarding school performance including summative data in the School Progress Report (SPR) and stakeholder feedback found in the annual District Surveys.

The consultant will not make recommendations regarding interventions. The reviews will be used to identify school strengths to build upon as well as to provide data to inform the District's selection of the strategic investments most likely to drive sustained school improvement.

Operating Budget: $70,000 Contract with Temple University - System of Great Schools Meetings

RESOLVED, that the School Reform Commission authorizes The School District of Philadelphia, through the Superintendent or his designee, to execute, deliver, and perform a contract with Temple University to lead the facilitation of several sessions designed to solicit feedback from school stakeholders, to record and analyze the feedback, and to produce a report synthesizing the input gathered from the community in support of the School District's System of Great Schools process, for an amount not to exceed $70,000, for the period commencing September 1, 2017 through February 28, 2018.

Description: The School District of Philadelphia (the District) seeks a consultant to facilitate multiple community engagement sessions in a number of schools that have been identified as under-performing through the District’s SGS process for the 2017-18 school year. As part of the SGS process, the consultant will meet with school stakeholders - including students, family members, staff, and community stakeholders - to gather input on each school's strengths, challenges, and opportunities for improvement. The consultant's purpose will be to facilitate community engagement meetings, systematically record feedback, provide raw data to the District, and produce a summative report listing major feedback trends. The consultant will work closely in partnership with the team leading SGS school quality reviews. The consultant will attend portions of the onsite school quality review to develop a clear context of the school and its successes and needs. The consultant will use information gathered during the school quality review to inform its focus areas for town halls and focus group sessions. The consultant will also collaborate with the school quality review team in the drafting of the final report.

The District plans to host at least five opportunities at each school for families and community stakeholders to provide feedback. These opportunities would include (but not necessarily be limited to)

--- an introductory community meeting to share a rationale for the school's selection into the SGS process, possible outcomes of the SGS process, and a timeline for decision-making; and to solicit input on the school's strengths and opportunities from attendees;

--- two focus group meetings for family members that are representative of a diverse cross-section of the student body; and

--- a town hall meeting to solicit further feedback in support of gathering a comprehensive and multi-perspective view of the school's strengths and opportunities for improvement; and

--- a feedback and findings meeting to share with the community what information was gathered during the engagement process and to solicit final input into the improvement process.

This feedback from school stakeholder groups will supplement other data that is available regarding school performance including summative data in the School Progress Report (SPR) and stakeholder feedback found in the annual District Surveys. This collection of information will be used to inform investments and interventions that will be made to accelerate student performance at each school. The consultant will not make recommendations regarding interventions. The stakeholder feedback will be used to identify school strengths to build upon as well as to provide data to inform the District's selection of the strategic investments most likely to drive sustained school improvement.

The District will work with the partner and the school to craft a school-specific proposal once the appropriate needs and levels of service have been identified. The partner will support the school through the 2017-18 school year, after which the school and the District will review the efficacy of the partnership and make a decision about whether or not to extend the partnership for additional years.

These practicum and intern experiences come at no cost to the District. University health students placed in schools through this program, shall learn the roles and responsibilities of school nurses, related services therapists, health educations, social workers, and school administrators and how these instructional and non-instructional services support teaching and learning resulting in improved student health and academic achievement. Practicum and internship programs provide District nurses and other health related staff with crucial assistance and support. In addition, these programs have proven to be an excellent method to recruit highly qualified health professional graduates, who are committed to District students, for positions that are often difficult to fill.

The university health student's placement is approved by school principals or the principal's appointed designee. The location or placement of the university health student is determined by Student Support Services in collaboration with the Student Placement Coordinator of each college or university. The Office of Student Support Services shall place students in elementary, middle and high schools that are under performing academically, and are in need of additional supportive services and staff.

School District clinical personnel will provide instruction, and support to the university health students and ensure that they are completing their course work, while the university health students are providing assistance to school nurses and therapists, by increasing productivity in school health mandated programs. University health students will provide support to school nurses to complete mandated State screenings and to conduct educational programs for students about the importance of having a medical facility where they can receive services in various areas of vision, oral health, and primary medical services.

University health students will also provide assistance to health education instructors by supporting the health education curriculum in the classroom and teaching District students how to take ownership of their health and become good consumers of healthcare services, as well as the benefits of maintaining a healthy lifestyle. University health students placed in high schools will specifically concentrate in the area of sexual education. The District currently collaborates with the Philadelphia Department of Public Health (PDPH) to conduct STD screening for Gonorrhea and Chlamydia in high schools students. Out of 40% of District students who participate in the program, approximately 7% test positive for sexually transmitted diseases in initial screening, less than half of these students participate in the voluntary rescreening process; and between 14% and 30% of these students become re-infected. University health student interns will work with health educators, school nurses and PDPH to increase educational awareness about re-infection of sexually transmitted diseases, increase the rescreening rate, and to reduce the rate of re-infection in high school students. Placement of the university health students in District schools also increases students' awareness of careers in allied health professions such as nursing, occupational and

Categorical/Grant Fund: $50,000 Grant Acceptance from the Christopher Ludwick Foundation – Temporary Financial Assistance
RESOLVED, that the School Reform Commission authorizes the School District of Philadelphia through the Superintendent or his designee, to accept, if awarded, a grant from the Christopher Ludwick Foundation, for an amount not to exceed $50,000, to provide temporary financial assistance to families experiencing a crisis or sudden hardship, for the period commencing September 1, 2017 through June 30, 2018

Description: The purpose of this grant is to offer a full array of supportive services, as needed, to students and their families to ensure full participation in their education. The Ludwick Foundation fund supplements unexpected school-related expenses during family emergencies. Schools can apply for these funds from the Office of Student Enrollment and Placement for students who have urgent needs to minimize disruptions in their education and remove barriers that impede academic achievement.

A student actively attending a Philadelphia public school (grades K-12) is eligible for emergency funds if he/she is experiencing a crisis or sudden hardship that negatively impacts the family's income. Examples are: a recent loss or death of a family member, fire or other damage to personal property, homelessness, recent loss of income, sudden illness of a family member, unexpected medical bills, and theft of personal property in school. Categorical/Grant Fund: $90,000 Contract with Forman Mills – Purchase of Uniforms for Homeless Students
RESOLVED, that the School Reform Commission hereby authorizes The School District of Philadelphia, through the Superintendent or his designee, to execute, deliver and perform a contract with Forman Mills to purchase uniforms for students experiencing homelessness, for an amount not to exceed $90,000, for the period commencing August 18, 2017 through June 30, 2018.

Description: The School Reform Commission has adopted a school uniform policy for all students. Uniforms must be worn every day, starting the first day of school in September. The District expects every student to be properly groomed and dressed for school. Dressing in an appropriate manner helps to prepare students for the working world. The uniform policy is strictly enforced in order to maintain an educational atmosphere and safe environment for all.

Homeless families often cannot afford to purchase uniforms throughout the year, as they may be living in emergency housing or other displaced familial arrangements. When uniform vouchers are readily available for these families, it removes the barrier for this population of students attending school regularly. The percentage of students who are truant remains higher for homeless students than domiciled students. Therefore, establishing a system to supply vouchers throughout the year is paramount to supporting homeless students' achievement of academic success and schools reaching adequate yearly progress.

During the 2007-2008 school year, 1,270 students received uniform assistance. To date in 2017, over 1,600 students have received uniform assistance. The goal is to supply at least four (4) uniforms (4 pairs of pants, 4 shirts/blouses, and 2 sweaters) for each student per year. Several emergency housing facilities have reported an increase in attendance at school because students have been more inclined to attend school when they are in full uniform.

To ensure all students and their families are aware of this assistance, schools may send a letter to the parents/guardians of all students requesting that they contact the school for help in obtaining uniforms. Homeless students or parents of homeless students can then apply for uniform assistance from their school counselor, who is the point person in each school. Schools may contact the Office of Student Enrollment and Placement to request assistance for the purchase of uniforms.

The Office of Student Enrollment and Placement used three competitive solicitations to obtain vendors who will supply the goods as described in this resolution. RFQ0100, RFQ0105 were issued during the 2013-2014 school year and RFQ0126 was issued for the 2014-2015 school year. Forman Mills was the vendor that was selected. This is a 3 year solicitation bid that ends June 30, 2017, with the option to extend for one year. We are requesting that extension.

Donation: $30,000 Acceptance of Donation of In-Kind Services from Education Works
RESOLVED, that the School Reform Commission authorizes The School District of Philadelphia, through the Superintendent or his designee, to accept with appreciation from Education Works the donation of in-kind services, valued at $30,000, to be used to implement Youth Court at two middle schools, Harding Middle School and Wilson Middle School, for the period commencing August 18, 2017 through June 30, 2018.

Description: EducationWorks, through its partnership with Philadelphia Community Youth Court, trains school-based staff and students in grades 6 through 12 in its Youth Court model to provide an alternative disciplinary program for students who break minor school rules. Youth Court will be implemented in two middle schools in the School District of Philadelphia.

Through Youth Court, students have a trial before their peers for offenses such as truancy, disruptive behavior in school, theft, profanity and other similar offenses. In trial-like proceedings, students serve as judges, jury members, and attorneys and impose restorative dispositions such as written letters of apology, or community service, research projects. Youth Courts uphold the disciplinary policies and procedures of the school using restorative practice as a vehicle to repair harm done to the school community. Youth Court promotes self-reflection and self-correction using a peer-to-peer model and subsequently promotes changes in student and adult thinking and behavior.

EducationWorks Youth Court program fosters in youth a respect for the rules of law, helps develop positive citizenship attitudes, encourages civic engagement, and promotes educational success. Youth Court provides a peer-driven mechanism that allows young people to take responsibility for their actions, be held accountable and make restitution via positive peer pressure. Additionally, youth learn the roles and responsibilities of the various parts of the judicial system. Youth act as law enforcement professionals such as attorneys, clerks, bailiffs and judges to gain experiential knowledge of the justice system. Participating youth acquire a considerable knowledge base of the justice system thus paving a path for academic and career-building opportunities. EducationWorks will deploy one to two trainers and provide a six (6) week Youth Court training series to one (1) school-based Youth Court Facilitator and twelve (12) to sixteen (16) students. Participants will receive sixteen (16) hours of training in four (4) core areas: Core I Principle of Restorative Justice, Core II Public Speaking, Core III Unified Judicial System of Pennsylvania, Core IV Youth Court Process. As an accompaniment to training partner schools receive a Youth Court handbook specifically tailored to each schools discipline policies and procedures. Upon successful completion of the Youth Court training core modules the facilitator and each participating student receives certification to serve dually on their school based youth court and the larger Greater Philadelphia Youth Court. EducationWorks will provide ongoing support and oversight through one (1) site visit per month for five (5) months following the initial training period at which time, feedback and additional coaching will be provided. Additionally, each facilitator will have phone and/or online support for the duration of the contract term. EducationWorks will also recruit and train volunteers (teachers, law professionals and law students) to support each schools' Youth Court.

Capital Fund: $67,105 Contract Amendment with HAKS – Mechanical Master Plan Renovation – M. L. King High School
RESOLVED, that the School Reform Commission authorizes The School District of Philadelphia, through the Superintendent or his designee, to execute, deliver, and perform an amendment of a contract, originally entered into with HAKS, pursuant to Resolution A-12, approved by the School Reform Commission on April 16, 2015, by increasing the amount of the contract by an additional $67,105 from the $520,000 approved by Resolution A-12, to an amount not to exceed $587,105. All other terms and conditions of this Contract shall remain the same.

Description: The adopted Capital Improvement Program (CIP) for FY 2017-18, includes an HVAC major renovation project at the Martin Luther King High School. HAKS was selected as the Design Consultant to produce drawings and is providing construction administration. This project addresses the existing mechanical systems and needed replacement. The existing plant and ancillary equipment are well beyond their normal life spans. The components of the project are the replacement of three cast iron boilers, two air-cooled chillers, roof top units, air handling units, reheat coils, classroom unit ventilators, control systems, associated piping, breeching, equipment pads, pumps, expansion tanks, and hot water heaters.

In November 2014, the School District of Philadelphia’s Office of Capital Programs issued a Request for Proposals (RFP) to obtain public competitive proposals from qualified firms to provide professional design services for the mechanical master plan for the Martin Luther King High School. Three firms responded to the RFP on December 30, 2014. The Selection Committee reviewed the RFP proposals based on the following evaluation criteria: (1) qualifications of the personnel measured by the technical experience and education of the key team members to provide the services being proposed; (2) the professional experience and qualifications of the proposer in the satisfactory performance of design services for projects of comparable size, building type and complexity and budget; (3) the quality of references from past or current clients; (4) history of the proposer in meeting the design and construction schedules; (5) the proposer’s past experience and performance to minimize change orders; (6) the proposed fee; (7) meeting MBE/WBE goals; and (8) tax compliance. According to these previously established evaluation criteria, Haks met the qualifications, technical, administrative and pricing requirements set forth in the RFP, and its proposal was determined to be the most advantageous to the School District.

The Facility Condition Index (FCI) score for the Martin Luther King High School building is 41.51%. The SY2014-2015 School Progress Report (SPR) is 9.

Renewal of Lease Agreement with Northeast Treatment Center – L. P. Hill School

RESOLVED, that the School Reform Commission authorizes The School District of Philadelphia, through the Superintendent or his designee, to execute, deliver and perform a two-year renewal of a Lease Agreement, originally entered into with Northeast Treatment Services or its affiliate, pursuant to Resolution A-18, approved by the School Reform Commission on August 21, 2014, at the former LP Hill School located at 3133 Ridge Avenue, Philadelphia, by extending the termination of the Lease Agreement from August 31, 2017 through August 31, 2019. The rent for the renewal term will be $187,000 per year (22,000 square feet at $8.50 per square foot), to be paid monthly.

Description: The School District of Philadelphia is exploring the idea of transforming existing school buildings into “community schools”. In a community school, resources of the school and community are organized to promote student success. While the primary focus is on students, community schools are intended to be centers of activity that promote partnerships which benefit all members of the neighborhood.

One such partnership has developed in the Strawberry Mansion section of the city, where the U.S. Attorney’s Office has worked with Strawberry Mansion High School to implement violence prevention programs. To advance these programs, and to incorporate additional partnerships with the community, the School District intends to lease space at the closed Leslie Pinckney Hill Elementary School building (“LP Hill School”), located at 3133 Ridge Avenue adjacent to Strawberry Mansion High School, to additional community service agencies.

The LP Hill School was closed by the School District as of August, 2013. LP Hill School’s location adjacent to and partially connected with Strawberry Mansion High School renders it difficult or impossible to sell as a separate building, but the buildings have enough separation that LP Hill could be used for purposes other than education.

The benefits to the School District, Strawberry Mansion High School and the community include the following:
1. The building will be occupied and overhead expenses of the School District in maintaining and securing the building will be defrayed.
2. Programs offered will benefit the families of the students attending Strawberry Mansion High School as well as the surrounding community.
3. Programs will be able to take advantage of bringing together entities with similar missions and, in some cases, funding sources, that will encourage collaboration and growth to assure that the community is efficiently and effectively served.

Northeast Treatment Centers (NET) is the Community Umbrella Agency (CUA) for the City’s 22nd Police District. CUAs are funded through the City’s Department of Human Services and are responsible for the provision of direct case management services to families in their designated region. CUAs ensure that local solutions and resources are accessible to children and families, and develop connections to formal and informal neighborhood networks that can strengthen and stabilize families and will be responsible for recruitment and retention of foster and adoptive parents in the neighborhoods where children live.

NET will be leasing 22,000 square feet of space on the second floor of LP Hill as office and meeting space to provide a range of child welfare, mental health and additional services to individuals and families as part of the “Improving Outcomes for Children initiative, which is central to the City’s Department of Human Services’ efforts to transform local child welfare services. The annual rental rate of $187,000

($8.50 per square foot) will be paid in monthly installments of $15,583.33, for a term of two years commencing on September 1, 2017 through August 31, 2019. This rate reflects use of the school during established operating hours. Use during extended or weekend hours will be approved and billed separately through the use of the School District of Philadelphia’s EH-45 Use of Facilities process. This rate also includes capital improvements that have been made to re-open the school. The payments of which will be amortized over a five-year period.

NET will be responsible for procuring and paying any costs related to electrical utilities, custodial services, and security. The School District shall provide the following services: building engineer services, basic building maintenance, initial capital repairs, dumpster service, sidewalk snow removal, and oil, natural gas, water, and stormwater utilities.

The School District will retain the right to cancel this contract at any time, and NET will be able to cancel the contract if their contract with the City of Philadelphia’s Department of Human Services for Improving Outcomes for Children as the Community Umbrella Agency for the 22nd Police District is not renewed.

In the case of an early termination due to the cancellation of the aforementioned contract with the City, NET would be responsible for the balance of the cost of the initial capital improvements, as well as any additional capital improvements that will be made to improve the space occupied by NET through additional agreements. The terms of the lease agreement must be acceptable to the School District’s Office of Real Property Management, Office of General Counsel and Office of Risk Management.

Renewal of Lease Agreement with Sayre Health Center, Inc. – William Sayre High School
RESOLVED, that the School Reform Commission hereby authorizes The School District of Philadelphia, through the Superintendent or his designee, to execute, deliver and perform a one-year renewal ("Renewal") of the Lease Agreement with Sayre Health Center, Inc. ("Sayre Health Center") for use as a community health center at William Sayre High School, 5800 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, originally entered into pursuant to Resolution No. A-7, approved by the School Reform Commission on October 18, 2006, and extended for successive one-year renewals extensions pursuant to Resolution No. A-7, approved by the School Reform Commission on October 5, 2012, Resolution No. A-5, approved by the School Reform Commission on December 20, 2012; Resolution No. A-6, approved by the School Reform Commission on February 20, 2014, Resolution A-6, approved by the School Reform Commission on September 18, 2014, and Resolution A-18, approved by the School Reform Commission on September 17, 2015, and Resolution A-15, approved by the School Reform Commission on November 15, 2016, for the period commencing on October 1, 2017 through September 30, 2018, at an annual rental of $42,444.00 per year (7,860 square feet at a rate of $5.40 per square foot) to be paid monthly. The Renewal authorizes an expansion of the leased premises to include an additional 2,034 square feet on the first floor, exercisable by Sayre Health Center upon two weeks' advance written notice to the School District. The Renewal will provide Sayre Health Center with an option to expand the leased premises to approximately 9,894 square feet. Upon the exercise of the expansion option, the rent will increase to $53,427.60 per year (9,894 square feet at a rate of $5.40 per square foot) to be paid monthly. The School District will continue to be responsible for all utilities and snow and ice removal and Sayre Health Center,
Inc. will continue to be responsible for its custodial staff, minor maintenance and repairs, trash recycling pick-up, security, disposable wastes and a proportionate share of costs for the building engineer for overtime. The terms of the Renewal must be acceptable to the School District's Office of General Counsel and Office of Risk Management.
Description: This resolution is requesting a seventh one-year extension of the original term of the lease. The current extension expires on September 30, 2017. The rental rate is based on the following: 1) Sayre Health Center, Inc. is responsible for its custodial staff, minor maintenance & repairs, trash recycling pick-up, security and disposal of medical waste; 2) The School District is only responsible for utilities and snow & ice removal; and 3) The School District, as a tax-exempt entity, subject to covenants pertinent to the bond financing of its real property, bases rental rates on its out-of-pocket expenses when leasing its buildings to third parties.

Sayre Health Center is a non-profit health center that provides Medical and Educational health services to the West Philadelphia Community, including the Sayre High School students and their families.

Clinical services offered by Sayre Health Center include: primary care, social work services, pregnancy testing, vaccinations, school physicals, nutrition services and Penn-Dental. Also, Sayre Health Center provides health service education and training to the Sayre High School students.

Additionally, Sayre Health Center has a specialist-referral network for the patients.

Description: The National Science Foundation has provided the Consortium for Policy Research in Education (CPRE) with a four year Level II Implementation and Improvement grant. This project focuses on supporting elementary school mathematics instruction and student learning. The project will be implemented through a strong research-practice partnership between CPRE; the Ongoing Assessment Project (OGAP); the School District of Philadelphia (SDP); the University of Pennsylvania Graduate School of Education (PennGSE); and the Philadelphia Education Research Consortium (PERC). Categorical/Grant Fund: $150,000 Acceptance of Grant from Philadelphia Education Research Consortium (PERC)
RESOLVED, that the School Reform Commission authorizes The School District of Philadelphia, through the Superintendent or his designee, to accept with appreciation, if awarded, a grant from the Philadelphia Education Research Consortium, in an amount up to $150,000, to support a study focused on attendance and academic challenges that impact ninth graders’ successful transition to high school, for the period commencing August 18, 2017 through September 30, 2020.

Description: If the grant is awarded, the School District of Philadelphia’s Office of Research and Evaluation (ORE) will receive up to $150,000 over the next three years in order to offset the expenses for staff support PERC’s study, which will focus on three areas of inquiry aimed at generating actionable recommendations on how to improve support to ninth graders during their transition to high school.

First, PERC will explore patterns in attendance among first-time ninth graders with the goal of identifying key, actionable opportunities for intervention and improvement. This component of the research study seeks to get beyond facts that are widely known, for example, that attendance rates decline between 8th and 9th grade and that attendance is a predictor of staying on track to graduation, to understand whether there are key moments for intervention and categories of students who require special attention. For this reason, the focus is less on the attendance rate at the end of the year than the path by which students came to have their end-of-year attendance rates.

Second, the study will identify core subject areas in which ninth graders are most likely not to accumulate credits, or to earn a passing but poor grade. As part of this research, PERC will also look for subject areas where ninth graders struggle the most, to learn more about the predictors of and the path to non-accumulation of credits or a poor grade in those subject areas at the end of ninth grade. This work is potentially actionable because it may identify high-leverage places on which to focus to help ninth graders earn the credits they need for on-time promotion to tenth grade, and high school graduation. The work may also suggest interventions that address these areas of highest needs and opportunity.

Third, PERC seeks to better understand students who struggle from the very first months of ninth grade, including identifying any strong predictors of students who are likely to have low grades in or fail core courses and/or have high absences. This work is related to the studies of absenteeism and core course performance, but puts a focus specifically on students who struggle early in high school.

ORE’s supporting activities will include pulling and cleaning student data, preparing data sets for analysis, attending project meetings, communicating findings to stakeholders, incorporating PERC’s predictive analyses into dashboards, and supporting District and school leaders in formulating a response to the study’s recommendations.

from the grantor and the end of the academic year. Funding for this work was not approved until well into April and there was limited time remaining in the school year to collect the extensive data needed from teachers and principals before summer break. In the future, no further service will be allowed by the Office Teaching and Learning without prior SRC resolution approval, as clearer communication will be made.

The William Penn Foundation has made a grant to The Center for Teaching Quality (CTQ) to help the District increase its capacity to assess the role of School-Based Teacher Leader (SBTL) and redefine intended outcomes for this role. The Office of Teaching and Learning is partnering with CTQ to explore how SBTL roles are currently structured, selected, and supported, and how this position impacts results in District schools. The research and data collected from this comprehensive scan will be used by a design team consisting of District Staff and CTQ to develop recommendations for maximizing the SBTL role.

CTQ will work with district staff - principals, SBTLs, teachers - in order to evaluate the SBTL role by what is currently entailed and other possible additions to consider. This work will be accomplished in two phases. Phase 1 began in May of 2017 and the projected completion of Phase 2 is in October 2018. In Phase 1, CTQ will administer surveys and facilitate focus groups with current SBTLs, principals, district leadership, and other relevant stakeholders. The data will then be analyzed to create a description of the current state of SBTL roles, support, connection to the large leadership pipeline, and aggregate impact to date.

Phase 2 will focus on cycles of inquiry where responsibility is gradually released to District staff for sustained action. Based on the quantitative and qualitative data analysis of CTQ, the SBTL Design team will engage in mini-inquiry cycles to pilot test predicted actions to better assist in the successful evolution of the SBTL role. The goal of the mini-inquiry cycles is to understand the best way to guide the SBTL role for a seamless adjustment of current role requirements, needs, and suggestions as found by CTQ. These mini-inquiry cycles will be tested, revised, and retested by the SBTL Design Team during the 2017-2017 school year. CTQ will then support the Office of Teaching and Learning and the design team in translating the research and cycles of inquiry to recommendations for maximizing the SBTL role.

The United Way of Greater Philadelphia and Southern New Jersey (UWGPSNJ) selected the following schools in tandem with the District to participate in this initiative: Dr. Ethel Allen, William Dick, Prince Hall, Joseph Pennell, Edward Steel, and Bayard Taylor. These elementary schools had 25% or more students scoring below basic on the 2011 PSSA exams and were located in or near zip codes UWGPSNJ has targeted.

Donation: Acceptance of Donation of Services from Logic Eye Care, Inc.
RESOLVED, that the School Reform Commission authorizes The School District of Philadelphia, through the Superintendent or his designee, to accept with appreciation the donation of services from Logic Eye Care, Inc. to administer comprehensive eye exams to preschool students at prekindergarten sites for the period commencing September 1, 2017 through June 30, 2018.

Description: Head Start Program Performance Standards require that within 45 calendar days after a child first attends our program, the program must either obtain or perform evidence-based vision screenings. At District Prekindergarten (Pre-K) sites, Pre-K nurses administer the initial screenings which can test for visual acuity, but is limited in detecting more serious vision problems. If a child fails this initial screening, the nurse informs the family who is then responsible for working with a healthcare provider directly to obtain a more comprehensive vision screen. The family is also responsible for taking the prescribed corrective action to ensure the child can see clearly. Unfortunately, families are often unable to pursue the needed additional testing and/or take the prescribed corrective action. Additionally, the required 45 calendar day turnaround can be difficult for District Pre-K nurses as they often are responsible for multiple sites.

Support from Logic Eye Care, Inc. will provide much needed assistance on multiple levels. Logic Eye Care, Inc. will assist Pre-K nurses with administering the initial vision screenings to keep the District in compliance with the 45 day standard. Additionally, Logic Eye Care, Inc. will not only facilitate the next level in-depth vision screenings for students who fail the initial vision test, but their team of experienced eye care professionals will also fit eyewear and bill medical providers of the insured (student or parent/guardian) for care provided and eyeglasses. In the instances where families are under insured, The Office of Early Childhood staff will assist in enrolling PreK children in the CHIP program to ensure that children who need glasses receive them. This much-needed service will work to narrow the gap in eyecare services for children in need. Communication between the District and Logic Care, Inc. will be centrally managed and coordinated by the Health Coordinator in the Office of Early Childhood.

Operating Budget: $132,000 Contracts with Progressus Therapy, LLC (Invo HealthCare Associates, LC), EDU Healthcare, LLC, and Delta-T Groups, Inc. – School Psychologists
RESOLVED, that the School Reform Commission authorizes The School District of Philadelphia, through the Superintendent or his designee, to execute, deliver and perform contracts separately with Progressus Therapy, LLC (Invo HealthCare Associates, LC), EDU Healthcare, LLC, and Delta-T Group, Inc., to provide licensed and qualified school psychologists to perform student psychoeducational evaluations and prepare evaluation reports, within timelines established by federal and state law, for an aggregate amount not to exceed $132,000, for the period commencing August 18, 2017 through, June 30, 2018.

Description: To ensure 100% School District compliance with the rigorous procedural time limit requirements of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) grant, the Office of Specialized Services (OSS) is seeking authorization to contract with Progressus, EDU and Delta-T, for the provision of contracted school psychologists to perform special education evaluations. The School District will utilize Contractor’s contracted school psychologists on an as-needed basis: when a student evaluation must be performed immediately due to a Court Order or an emergency, or when School District staff cannot complete a mandatory evaluation within timelines established by IDEA.

IDEA enforces strict timelines and procedures for determining, through the evaluation process, whether a student is disabled and requires special education services. As a condition of the IDEA grant, regulations mandate that school psychologists conduct student evaluations and prepare reports within 60 calendar days after a parent provides informed consent. In addition, the parent and Individualized Education Program (IEP) team must receive the evaluation report at least 10 school days before an IEP meeting. When School District teachers and multi-disciplinary education teams suspect that a child has a disability, they are obligated to request an evaluation from a school psychologist. Parents may also unilaterally request that the School District have a school psychologist perform an evaluation to determine eligibility for special education services. Parents, teachers and multi-disciplinary teams may requests additional evaluations of students already identified as disabled and qualifying for special education services if warranted, for example, when considering changes in placement and disability status. Once the School District receives parent informed consent to perform an evaluation, the 60-day countdown to have a school psychologist perform an evaluation and prepare a report is triggered. In addition, unless waived by the parent, after the initial evaluation, IDEA and Pennsylvania law require the School District to conduct reevaluations every two year for students with intellectual disabilities and every 3 years for students with all other disabilities.

Evaluations within the 60-day window become more challenging when the students or parents’ primary language is not English, and bi-lingual interpreters and document translations are required to complete evaluations. Many children residing in Philadelphia live in transitory households. A significant number of students move in and out of the School District from the other counties and states, the Caribbean, Mexico,
Central and South America. When a student moves into the District, a re-evaluation may be required in less than 60-days in order comply with IDEA timelines. The need to evaluate up to 1,800 students transitioning from early intervention programs to kindergarten presents another major challenge to school psychologists. Moreover, the School District may be required to evaluate students and complete reports in far less than 60 days, if ordered to do so by the Court or a Due Process Hearing Officer.

A School District evaluation team selected the Contractors using a competitive process, through Request for Proposal No. 529, issued by the School District's Office of Procurement Services on March 7, 2017.

Operating Budget: $6,997,500 Contracts with Community Council Educational Services and Catapult Learning – Contracted Emotional Support Classrooms
RESOLVED, that the School Reform Commission authorizes The School District of Philadelphia, through the Superintendent or his designee to execute, deliver, and perform a contract with Community Council Education Services (Community Council Health Systems), for the provision of up to a total of 45 emotional support classrooms for students with emotional disabilities, as well as for services to support students with emotional disturbance and enhanced behavioral needs in other School District settings, for an aggregate amount not to exceed $6,750,000, for the period commencing August 18, 2017, through June 30, 2018.

Description: The Office of Specialized Services (OSS) requests authorization to contract with Community Council (CC) to operate 45 emotional support (ES) classrooms by delivering qualified teachers, and a wide range of academic, behavioral and support services to students with serious emotional disturbance (ED), and for whom the School District believes more complex educational and therapeutic supports are required. The School District has utilized the contracted ES classroom model successfully since September 2009. The School District selected the Contractor using a competitive process through Request for Proposal (RFP) No. 542, issued by the School District's Office of Procurement Services on May 9, 2017.

This Resolution is proposed in the event that the School District, through its Office of Talent, has teacher vacancies for ES classrooms in September 2017. Should there be vacancies in ES teacher positions, after the Office of Talent has fulfilled its obligations under union collective bargaining agreements, OSS requests authorization to contract with CC to provide the educational services and staff needed to fill these vacancies. This year, the School District anticipates up to 45 ES teacher vacancies.

Some students with ED have Individualized Education Programs (IEPs) that require them to receive instruction and intensive behavioral supports in an ES classroom setting. In addition to specialized instruction, ES classrooms provide students with intensive therapeutic behavioral supports. Contracted ES classrooms provide students with ED with multiple professionals experienced in providing coordinated educational and behavioral support services. The Contractor will staff each contracted classroom with a certified special education teacher who will provide special education instruction and emotional support services to the students, and with two experienced behavioral specialists.

In each contracted classroom, the Contractor will implement with fidelity the curriculum mandated by the School District and that is in full accord with the Pennsylvania core academic standards. In addition, the Contractor will utilize OSS approved research-based interventions and evidence-based therapeutic models that provide both educational and behavioral supports for students with ED.

Before recommending an ES placement, a multidisciplinary team in collaboration with an OSS Special Education Director and the OSS Coordinator for Emotional Support Programs carefully reviews a student's educational and therapeutic needs. Additional information and recommendations may be requested from the school psychologist, school nurse and Multi-Tiered System of Support (MTSS) team. Students considered for ES programs must fit a profile that identifies the need for intensive emotional and behavioral supports. Students' behavioral issues may range from anger control to conduct disorders to severe depression and post-traumatic stress disorder. These students present persistent and often volatile behaviors of aggression and explosive episodes in the school and home setting. The need for a more therapeutic environment becomes evident as student behaviors persist and regular modes of treatment and intervention prove ineffectual. Therapeutic supports provided in these classrooms ensure that students are safely educated with peers in neighborhood schools, in the least restrictive environment, and with a repertoire of research-based interventions.

The Contractor's ES program will implement and comply with each participating students' IEP and will address the instruction and related services each student needs to achieve academic and behavioral success. ES programs provided by the Contractor will consist minimally of one full-time, certified special education teacher, a teacher assistant, and behavioral assistant. In addition, within the Contractor's administration structure, a service coordinator or identified agency member will support family and inter-agency involvement by linking with parents and mental health resources to provide students with a continuum of care. The Contractor uses a research-based model called the Circle of Courage. This model is part of the national re-education movement, which views children holistically rather than as solely problematic. The Circle of Courage model focuses on character and leadership development in preparation for positive lifestyle and increases participation in the general population.

RESOLVED, that the School Reform Commission authorizes The School District of Philadelphia, through the Superintendent or his designee, to execute, deliver, and perform contracts separately with Aperture Education, Insights to Behavior and WhyTry, LLC to provide social-emotional curricula and professional development to teachers of students receiving emotional support services, for an aggregate amount not to exceed $543,900, for the period commencing August 18, 2017 through June 30, 2018.

Description: The Contractors will provide selected School District teachers with a comprehensive curriculum on evidence-based practices and strategies, proven to enhance the social skills, emotional development, and academic level of the students with emotional disabilities. In addition to academic needs, students who require emotional support are entitled to specially designed instruction that also aims to improve their social-emotional development through the use of a variety of approaches and skills that are individualized, and with opportunities for practice, feedback, and generalization.

The School District selected the Contractors through Request for Proposal (RFP-543). The School District evaluation team identified Aperture Education, Insights to Behavior, and Why Try as three highly qualified evidence-based curricular providers. In addition, the Contractors demonstrated the ability to provide outstanding professional development and support to School District staff on their curriculum programs. The proposals submitted included a detailed outline of curriculum instructional materials, and plans for delivering comprehensive professional development.

Aperture Education will provide an assessment tool, consultation, and professional development in order to determine baseline and targeted intervention support for the students. Teachers will be able to assess their students using the DESSA, DESSA-mini and Evo Social/Emotional system in order to identify students’ present baseline for targeted behavioral skills. During the year, as the students are provided with evidence-based practices and strategies through targeted curricula, the DESSA-mini can then monitor student progress, outcomes and responses to the selected programs: Insights to Behavior (grades K-5); Why Try (grades 6-8). This assessment tool will inform teachers of the behavioral progress and needs of the students they are teaching.

The School District will utilize Insights to Behavior for K to 5 emotional support programs. Insights to Behavior focuses on principals of Applied Behavior Analysis (ABA) to enable teams to identify triggers that are maintaining problematic behaviors. Knowing this causation allows teachers to set up situations successfully by changing both antecedents and consequences for students. Insight to Behavior aims at supporting teachers in developing quality behavior plans with an array of strategies. Insights to Behavior programs are aligned to the CASEL five core competencies: self-awareness, self-management, social awareness, relationship skills, and responsible decision making. Lessons provide immediate situations and feedback for students to learn, practice, and generalize skills, in order to become competent learners. Insights to Behavior will provide School District teachers with whole group professional development, on-site consultation services, and 24-hour web-based support.

The School District will utilize WhyTry for 6 to 12 emotional support programs. WhyTry emphasizes the need to develop and enhance individual student resiliency. Students completing the WhyTry program have experienced improved self-esteem, emotional health and self-advocacy skills, increase in GPA, reduction in bullying, fighting and aggressive behaviors, decrease in expulsions and behavioral referrals, and graduation success. The WhyTry curriculum employs a multi-learning style approach by utilizing a series of ten visual analogies that teach important life skills. These analogies are reinforced through music, hands-on activities, and multimedia. The analogies are based on empirical principals that include cognitive behavior therapy, solution-focused brief therapy and CASEL strategies. The WhyTry program includes comprehensive teacher training and support.

Health Sciences, Kensington Urban/Business, School of the Future, Martin Luther King Jr., Overbrook, Penn Treaty, and West Philadelphia and their elementary/middle school feeders.

During their college visit experience, students will learn about campus enrollment, academic programs, tuition rates, housing options, admissions requirements, and campus life. This information will provide students with valuable insight into what is needed for their college exploration process.

Both Explore Colleges and All Aboard have been selected as college experience vendors for their level of professionalism, quality of the visit experience, and their capacity to accommodate the varied requests of all GEAR UP CRCC schools. Explore Colleges and All Aboard submitted quotes for services under The District's Title I grants policies. Both vendors were screened and selected based on the following:

1. Level of professionalism - Explore Colleges and All Aboard understand the need and breadth of the GEAR UP CRCC initiative. In this understanding, both vendors have been able to customize the college campus experience based on the needs of the participating students and the goals of the GEAR UP CRCC grant.
2. Quality of Enhanced Visit Experience - Explore Colleges and All Aboard are one of few providers who allow students in-depth insight into the college life experience. This is done through personalized campus tours, meetings with college and university faculty and staff and a customized presentation with the Admissions Staff.
3. Capacity to accommodate - unlike the other vendors that were vetted, based on the individuality of each GEAR UP school and the rate at which requests for campus visit experiences would be received, both Explore Colleges and All Board are able to accommodate throughout the academic year in addition to any requests during the summer months.

Based on the above, and their flexibility in pricing, both Explore Colleges and All Aboard are most compatible in their ability to accommodate the needs of the GEAR UP CRCC Project.

Description: City Year Philadelphia is a youth service AmeriCorps program that has worked in successful collaboration with the district over the past eighteen years. City Year Corps Members are persons 18-25 years of age, who make a one-year, full-time service commitment to working in Philadelphia's elementary, middle and high schools. The following schools expected to participate in School Year 2017 - 2018 include, but are not limited to: Frankford High School, Edison High School, Kensington High School, Penn Treaty High School and High School of the Future. Through this collaboration, City Year will continue to work intensively with students, teachers, principals and school staff to enhance academic support activities, after school activities, positive climate activities, and college and career awareness activities. COMMUNITY SERVICE AND CIVIC ENGAGEMENT - Corps members will engage students in community service and civic service projects that help them fulfill 9th grade community service requirements towards graduation and prepare them to be productive and engaged citizens. Services include: developing school and community service projects in addition to other leadership development activities.

Corps members will be present in schools a total of 9.5 hours per day based on the start and end time of the school. Corps members will occasionally help with GEAR UP events on weekdays, evenings and weekends.

City Year focuses on fighting the national dropout crisis. They are able to leverage the talent, energy and idealism of corps members to serve as tutors, mentors and role models in underserved, urban schools to help students stay on track and get back on track in order to graduate on time and help increase the graduation rate nationally. Each year, more than half of the approximately 1.2 million students who drop out across the country are from minority groups. City Year serves in 24 major communities to reverse this trend and develop an urban graduate pipeline.

In Philadelphia, over 255 corps members have served 17,000 students. City Year's focus aligns with the GEAR UP Partnership goals as listed in the justification section below as well as the District's Anchor Goal 1.

B-19  Ratification of Memorandum of Understanding with Minorities in Science and Technology and/or Martin St. Productions – Gear Girls Documentary

RESOLVED, that the School Reform Commission hereby ratifies the execution, delivery and performance by The School District of Philadelphia, through the Superintendent, of a Memorandum of Understanding with Minorities in Science and Technology and/or Martin St. Productions, to film a documentary about the past, present and future of minorities and women in STEM within George Washington Carver High School of Engineering and Science, at no cost to the School District, for the period commencing September 1, 2016 through September 30, 2018. The Memorandum of Understanding must be in a form acceptable to the Office of General Counsel.

Description: The Gear Girls documentary follows the George Washington Carver High School Gear Girls robotics team throughout the 2016-2017 school year. The film focuses on the success and challenges of the five senior girls (Alexsis Davis, MyKyah Vessels, Venise Martinez, Qadirah Jones and Keisha Smith) who lead the team at competitions with FIRST Robotics and Sea Perch. Additionally, the film incorporates the work of Gear Girl mentors and established women in STEM, weaving their journeys into the film as well. We are seeking a ratification after the start date because of the time sensitive nature of the topic. The production team approached Carver E&S about the project late in the summer of 2016 and sought to begin filming in September 2016 because the focal point of the film would be five seniors who graduated in June 2017. After initial notification, various School District of Philadelphia departments gave verbal consent for the filming to begin until an SRC resolution was executed. The film crew spent the entire 2016-17 school year filming the students, and it follows their experience in school as well as several robotics competitions. The intention is to complete the final version of the film in June 2018 and apply for film festivals. Any profit from the film will be handled by a third party accounting firm and directed to scholarship money for the girls.

Description: The purpose of this resolution is to authorize a contract with the Finishing Trades Institute (FTI) of the Mid-Atlantic Region, the official training provider of The International Union of Painters and Allied Trades District Council 21, to provide a painting and glazing apprenticeship preparation program at District Council 21’s state-of-the-art training facility, located in Northeast Philadelphia. The District’s Office of Career and Technical Education (CTE) has partnered with FTI / District Council 21 over the past six years in an effort to offer District CTE students with quality, real world training in the finishing trades, thereby preparing students to enter the painters and glazers trades union, District Council 21, or other trades unions as apprentices. The amount of the contract will be $175,000.00. This pre-apprenticeship training program will be offered to approximately up to sixty (60) students enrolled in CTE Construction trades programs.

This training program will allow students to build knowledge and attain technical skills in the painting and glazing professions, earn OSHA 10 and First Aid/CPR certifications, and provide the foundational skills necessary to be admitted as apprentices into District Council 21 or other trades unions. Funds through this contract will be utilized by FTI to offset costs for facilities usage, materials, supplies, and salaries and benefits for two FTI/District Council 21 master tradesmen to serve as instructors for the program. The two instructors will each deliver a course, one painting and one glazing course. The instructors will also visit the schools on recruitment visits to speak to students and parents about this training opportunity. The glazing course will focus on the art of glass installation for commercial and industrial uses, and the painting course will focus on the craft of painting for commercial, residential, and industrial uses as well as interior and exterior painting techniques. To be considered for admission, students must express a true desire to excel in the finishing trades, as well as sit for an interview with FTI staff. Courses will be offered twice a week over the course of the school year, and on those two days, students will report directly to District Council 21’s state-of-the-art training facility in Northeast Philadelphia. The criteria on which students will be selected for admission will include grades, attendance and behavior.

Students participating in this program will have the opportunity to earn OSHA 10 and First Aid/CPR certifications. Students who complete the program and graduate from high school will have the opportunity to take a one week, 40 hour course, at FTI on Leadership Communications. Students who successfully complete that week they will be granted a total of 12 college credits, 9 for the training program and 3 for the Leadership Communications course. These credits are recognized by several schools, including FTI, that have articulation agreements with District Council 21.

Various Funds: $800,000 Contract with College Board – Advanced Placement/PSAT/SAT

RESOLVED, that the School Reform Commission authorizes The School District of Philadelphia, through the Superintendent or his designee, to execute, deliver, and perform a contract with The College Board to deliver and score the PSAT 8/9, PSAT, and SAT as well as the Advanced Placement Assessments in all School District of Philadelphia high schools for an amount not to exceed $800,000 for the period commencing September 1, 2017 through June 30, 2018.

Description: The College Board is a mission driven organization that was created to connect students to higher education opportunities. The company will provide School District of Philadelphia students in grades 9 through 11 with the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test (PSAT) and students in grade 12 with the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT). In addition, College Board will provide students participating in Advanced Placement (AP) classes with the assessment for the course and professional development for the teachers.

During the fall of 2016 over 15,000 School District of Philadelphia students in grades 9 through 11 participated in taking the PSAT district wide. This opportunity provided students with early exposure to the SAT and gave them the ability to be one step closer to college preparedness. In addition, students were able to receive free personalized online resources and practice exams tailored to their strengths and weaknesses based on PSAT scores. The District recognizes the importance of this initiative and would like to continue to provide students, who otherwise may have not taken the PSAT exam with the opportunity to do so during the 2017-2018 school year. To ensure that every senior has the opportunity to take the SAT exam, students must have the option to test during the school day.

During the 2016-2017 school year, every high school senior had an opportunity to take the SAT exam during the school day. This helped remove barriers that many of our students face with Saturday testing. Approximately, 6000 Philadelphia seniors participated in the nation wide SAT School Day testing. Consistent exposure to college readiness exams will continue to prepare students for college level expectations and coursework. Contracting with College Board will allow the District to continue this advantageous initiative.

Lastly, College Board will also provide professional development sessions for teachers teaching advanced placement courses across all district high schools. The week long training session across multiple content areas will allow teachers to stay abreast of the most up to date information in their respective areas of expertise.

Ratification of No Cost Contract Amendment with Renaissance Learning STAR Enterprise – Universal Screeners for Response to Instruction and Intervention
RESOLVED, that the School Reform Commission hereby ratifies the amendment by The School District of Philadelphia, through the Superintendent, previously authorized Contract No. 513/FY14, originally entered into with Renaissance Learning STAR Enterprises pursuant to Resolution B-12 approved by the School Reform Commission on September 23, 2013, to provide the use of Renaissance STAR, a literacy/math universal screener for all students in grades 6-12, by extending the term of the contract from its original scheduled expiration date of June 30, 2017 to June 30, 2018, at no cost to the School District.

Description: The ratification component of this resolution is being requested to seek authorization to extend the term of Contract No. 513/FY14, approved by the School Reform Commission on September 23, 2013, from June 30, 2017, to June 30, 2018. The extension of the contract with Renaissance Learning STAR Enterprises will give the District more time to address and meet the goals set forth in The School...
District of Philadelphia’s Action Plan with fidelity and to improve student outcomes.

Universal screening is used to identify and/or predict students who may be at risk for poor learning outcomes, or in need of enrichment. All students are screened/benchmarked a minimum of three times per year to determine academic status against grade-level standards. The STAR assessments have already been successful in identifying gaps in achievement for District students and determining tiered supports to address their needs. This service will continue to provide supports and a means of data analysis for students in grades 6-12 while allowing for shared ownership as the universal data can be shared with administrative teams, grade level teams, student specific teams, and parents.

Universal screening tests are typically brief, conducted with all students at grade level, and followed by additional testing or short-term progress monitoring to corroborate students’ risk status. Universal screening enables the District to focus on the fidelity of implementation and selection of evidence-based tools, with consideration for cultural and linguistic responsiveness and recognition of student strengths. The assessments are norm-referenced and use computer-adaptive testing to provide the most reliable information in the shortest amount of time. STAR Enterprise connects assessment with instruction through research-based learning progressions. This is accomplished by mapping student scores on each of the STAR assessments to research-based learning progressions for reading and math. STAR Enterprise provides, through a suite of Instructional Planning tools, valuable skills-based data and resources to inform instruction and practice.

STAR assessments are used to monitor student growth throughout the year, to estimate students’ understanding of state standards, and predict students’ performance on the state test. In addition, STAR helps teachers determine appropriate instructional levels and skills that students are ready to learn.

Best practices in comprehensive planning requires the ability to diagnose the current state as well as prioritize and organize next steps in response to the data. Learning Forward has experience working with other districts of similar size to Philadelphia (e.g. Duval County Public Schools in Florida and Fort Bend Independent School District in Texas) to engage in this type of intricate planning. Our work with Learning Forward will be executed in phases over the course of one year.

Phase 1 will focus on gathering information to assess the current status of professional learning in the district. This will include focus groups with educators across the system, meeting with district leadership, and establishing a shared understanding of the Standards for Professional Learning. This learning phase will culminate in creating a Professional Learning Task Force who will help identify system strengths and areas for improvement.

Phase 2 will focus on developing a draft comprehensive plan that will include multiple cycles of feedback and revision. The plan will be created in sections, driven by the 22 components recommended by Learning Forward in a comprehensive professional learning plan. The 22 components are aligned to the 7 standards for professional learning, developed by Learning Forward.

Phase 3 will focus on defining roles and responsibilities, identifying short- and long-term goals for improvement and establishing methods for ongoing communication.

IDEA: $2,617,112 Contracts with Camelot, Community Council Education Services, Inc., and NHS Woodhaven – Alternative Special Education Settings

RESOLVED, that the School Reform Commission acting in its capacity as Board of Directors of the Philadelphia Intermediate Unit 26 (IU-26), authorizes IU-26, through the Executive Director or his designee, to deliver and perform contracts separately with the Camelot Schools of Pennsylvania, for an amount not to exceed $1,095,729, with Community Council Education Services, Inc., for an amount not to exceed $759,383, and with NHS Woodhaven, for an amount not to exceed $312,000, for an aggregate amount not to exceed $2,617,112, to provide Alternative Special Education Settings for students with severe disabilities, for the period commencing August 18, 2017 through June 30, 2018.

Description: This resolution is to request authorization to renew contracts with Camelot Schools of Pennsylvania, Community Council Education Services, Inc., and NHS Woodhaven, to provide Alternative Special Education Settings (ASES) programs primarily for students with emotional disturbance and with serious behaviors that impede learning to such an extent that they cannot be effectively educated at their regular District neighborhood schools. The ASES programs are operated on sites owned or leased by the Contractors and approved by the School District. The purpose of the ASES program is to provide students with the intense behavioral interventions and supports they need in order to learn the skills necessary to appropriately function in the regular school environment. The goal of the ASES program is to prepare these students to transition back to their regular District home schools. ASES programs are a far less restrictive, expensive and lengthy alternative than sending students, with behaviors that impede learning, to Approved Private Schools or regular private schools.

On October 7, 2013, the District’s Office of Specialized Services (OSS), through the Office of Procurement, generated a Request for Proposal (RFP No. 388) soliciting contract proposals for the delivery for Alternative Special Education Settings (ASES) for students with severe disabilities. RFP 388 called for an initial 18 month term, beginning on January 1, 2014 and ending on June 30, 2015, with an option of three annual contract renewals ending June 30, 2018, based on the District’s satisfaction with the Contractors’ performance. In response to RFP No. 388 the following six organizations submitted proposals: Camelot Schools of Pennsylvania, Community Council Education Services, The Devereux Foundation, Impact Academy, NHS Woodhaven, and Special Education Services, Inc. The District through RFP No. 388 identified the following three exceptionally qualified provider agencies: Community Council Education Services, NHS Woodhaven and Camelot Schools. OSS is seeking authorization to renew contracts with these agencies to provide full-time educational services and supports to students with severe behavioral and intellectual disabilities, and who, as a result of these disabilities, require a more complex and intensive regimen of educational and therapeutic services than District schools are equipped to provide.

The Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) mandates that local school districts provide a free and appropriate public education (FAPE) to all children with disabilities regardless of the severity of their handicapping condition, as outlined in their Individualized Education Programs (IEPs). Annually, a number of students with severe disabilities require out of District placements because the District has determined that it does not have adequate existing programs and supports to meet the needs of these students. Individual students are referred to a number of schools, based upon their individual program needs and services as outlined in their Individualized Education Plans (IEP). Each school selected has a specific specialty and focus, and accepts students whose multiplicity of needs can be appropriately met by its program and staff. The District pays 100% of the cost of tuition, one to one assistants, and any related... services for students in these placements.

The provision of these programs is consistent with what is indicated in each student’s IEP and addresses the specially designed instruction and related services that are needed for these students to achieve at high levels.

The contractor developed a robot, known as Milo, as a highly effective intervention for improving the behavior, social, and communication skills of students with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD). The program shall be introduced during the 2017-18 school year and shall continue throughout the 2019-20 school year.

Humanoid robots present a non-threatening approach for students with autism to practice communication and social skills. The engaging aspect of Milo is a primary reason for the effectiveness of this intervention program. The National Professional Development Center (NPDC) on Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) recognizes technology-assisted instruction, through the use of robots, as one of the 27 intervention practices that have sound scientific evidence for increasing the social skills in children with ASD. The Milo robot employs NPDC approved evidence-based practices of visual supports, social narratives, video modeling, modeling, prompting (verbal and visual), reinforcement for display of target behaviors, and Applied Behavioral Analysis (ABA) principles. These practices have proven to be highly effective in improving the social behaviors and increasing the communication skills of students with ASD at all grade levels.

A Milo robot will be provided in the following ten elementary schools, in each of the School District's Neighborhood Networks: NN1- Amedee Bregy, NN2- Lewis C. Cassidy, NN3- Elizabeth Kirkbride, NN4- William Cramp NN5- Francis Hopkinson, NN6- Charles W. Henry, NN7- Thurgood Marshall, NN8- Joseph Greenberg, NN9- Thomas Holme, and Turn Around Network- Theodore Roosevelt. Approximately 100 Kindergarten through eighth-grade students attending these schools will benefit.

The Contractor provides approximately 300 robots in 285 schools nationwide. These schools are located in the following areas: Spartanburg, South Carolina; KIPP Truth Elementary, Texas; Cartersville City School District, Georgia; Franklin Special School District, Tennessee; St. Charles-District 303, Illinois; and Make It Fit Foundation, Ohio. Milo robots and curricula are utilized locally in the Chester County Intermediate Unit.
The use of Milo at the Spartanburg, South Carolina test-site demonstrated the following critical improvements in the behavior of students with ASD: Ability to recognize, communicate, express and regulate emotions; Apply calming down skills, thereby reducing behavioral issues; and ability to maintain eye contact with other people in social situations and appropriately engage in two-sided conversation. Student Individualized Education Program (IEP) data and teacher records from Spartanburg demonstrated that students made significant progress or mastery related to their social, communication, behavioral and academic goals during the last three academic quarters. In addition, teachers from Spartanburg confirmed that students were highly motivated and enthusiastic about working with Milo. Teachers were able to observe and measure concrete student behavioral improvements and results.

The Contractor will provide training to all School District teachers using the Milo robot and curriculum. In addition, the Contractor will provide support to teachers and staff when questions arise during implementation.

A School District evaluation team selected RoboKind, LLC through a formal competitive Request for Proposal (RFP 541) issued by the School District’s Office of Procurement Services on April 25, 2017. Robot Labs also submitted a proposal. RoboKind was selected by the evaluation team as the most capable and qualified candidate.

There are currently 2,100 special education teachers in the School District. These teachers collectively are responsible for coordinating the educational plans for approximately 20,000 students with an IEP. In the Office of Specialized Services (OSS), there are currently fifteen Special Education TAC (Training, Technical Assistance and Consultation) Coordinators to ensure that these teachers receive quality professional development and on-going consultative and coaching support in reading, writing, math, and differentiated instructional strategies appropriate for students with disabilities. As part of Intermediate Unit 26, the OSS TAC Team also has the responsibility of providing professional development in special education practices to Philadelphia County public charter schools. As part of the 2017-2018 Intermediate Unit 26 Plan Development, the Pennsylvania Department of Education (PDE), Bureau of Special Education (BSE) requires all Intermediate Units to conduct a professional development needs assessment in areas that align with the State Performance Plan and BSE initiatives. The needs assessment for 2017-2018 was distributed to School District assistant superintendents, principals, special education teachers, school psychologists, and school-based special education leaders. All Philadelphia County Charter Schools were surveyed as part of the needs assessment. Assessment results were used to develop the School District's special education training plan for school year 2017-2018. This plan has guided the selection of the proposed trainers and the areas of professional development.

To meet the challenge of providing ongoing training, coaching support and consultation to School District staff, and professional development to public charter school staff and those private and parochial schools in equitable participation, the OSS TAC Team is proposing to continue to utilize a strategy of contracting with qualified professionals to supplement the critical component of school-based consultation and coaching during school hours. School District teachers are not routinely available during the day for extensive didactic training. For the coming school year 2017-2018, the School District has slated 2 full-days and 5 half-days for training other than school-based training during which all staff must stay in their buildings. In school year 2016-2017, OSS was not able to offer any Saturday training, nor can Saturdays adequately offset the reduced training time during the school day. Consequently, OSS has made contracted trainers available to meet and work with teachers inside their classrooms during the school day. The selected contracted trainers have availability during school hours for dynamic school-based coaching and in-classroom support. In addition, OSS will continue to offer extensive after-school teacher "drop-in" trainings. These after-school trainings will be staffed by OSS TAC Coordinators and Network Special Education Case Managers working in tandem with the contracted trainers. OSS will continue to use online and webinar training as it creates a professional development platform with learning opportunities that each teacher can access.

To qualify vendors, the Office of Procurement issued a Request For Proposal (RFP), Number 491, on May 25, 2016. The following vendors responded to RFP 491:

1. Attainment Company: Literacy and Math Skill Building for Students with Multiple Disabilities.

7. QBS Inc.: Safety Care Behavioral Safety Program.
8. Quality Education Solutions, Inc.: Step Up to Writing, Summer Reading Camp: Peer Assisted Learning, Phonics for Reading, Rewards.

OSS also identified vendors that are working with sole source and proprietary professional development materials and programming. These vendors are the following:

IDEA-B: $60,400 Contract with C8 Sciences – Learning System Professional Development

RESOLVED, that the School Reform Commission acting in its capacity as Board of Directors of the Philadelphia Intermediate Unit 26 (IU-26), authorizes IU-26, through the Executive Director or his designee, to execute, deliver, and perform a contract with C-8 Sciences, to provide a comprehensive advanced computer-based learning system and curriculum designed to improve the executive functioning and learning capabilities of 420 students and to provide professional development for teachers, for an amount not to exceed $60,400, for the period commencing August 18, 2017 through June 30, 2018.

Description: The Contractor, C-8 Sciences, is the developer and distributor of ACTIVATE programs. ACTIVATE includes computer software products and curriculum that are used as interventions for students with disabilities to dramatically improve executive functioning. Executive Functioning and self-regulation skills are the mental processes that enable us to plan, focus attention, remember instructions, and perform multiple task successfully. The establishment of strong executive functioning processes is a critical component of child and adolescent brain development and the ability to process information and learn. Many students with learning and other cognitive disabilities have impaired executive functioning.

ACTIVATE products works to improve student mental focus, self-control, and memory skills through a combination of computer and physical exercises based on the latest neuroscience research from Yale University. The eight (8) areas of executive function targeted by ACTIVATE include: sustained attention, working memory, speed of information processing, response inhibition, cognitive flexibility, category formation, pattern recognition, and multiple simultaneous attention. The benefits of this focus on executive functioning include:

1. Increased ability to focus and learn more complex and lengthy material
2. Increased ability to recall what they have learned
3. Increased ability to keep pace with teaching and process basic information without any problems
4. Increased ability to control response to distractions
5. Increased ability to problem solve
6. Increased ability to organize information, concepts, and skills into categories
7. Increased ability to recognize patterns and utilize critical thinking
8. Increased ability to plan and strategize and to quickly switch between subject matters and activities

A plethora of academic research has indicated a correlation between strong executive functioning skills and strong academic performance, particularly in math, language, and literacy. These academic areas present tremendous challenges for students with learning disabilities. Moreover, executive functioning challenges are routinely indicated in these students’ cognitive profile. The School District’s Office of Specialized Services (OSS) determined through a review of student profile data, including evaluations and progress information provided by the school psychologists, that School District students with learning disabilities, especially students receiving learning support services, would greatly benefit from interventions that would improve their executive functioning.

The School District proposes to contract with C-8 Sciences to provide executive functioning interventions using the ACTIVATE program, for approximately 420 students with disabilities who require learning support programs. The Contractor will grant the School District a limited right and license to use all its ACTIVATE products, which includes computer-based programs, curriculum, and related documents and training materials. The ACTIVATE program also includes an effective progress monitoring and data analysis tool. To ensure effective implementation of ACTIVATE, the Contractor will provide School District teachers and personnel with training and support on the use of the product and system.

209.1 FOOD ALLERGY MANAGEMENT (NEW)

Purpose

The School Reform Commission is committed to providing a safe and healthy environment for students with severe or life-threatening food allergies and shall establish policy to address food allergy management in district schools in order to:

1. Reduce and/or eliminate the likelihood of severe or potentially life-threatening allergic reactions.

2. Ensure a rapid and effective response in the case of a severe or potentially life-threatening allergic reaction.

3. Protect the rights of students by providing them, through necessary accommodations when required, the opportunity to participate fully in all school programs and activities, including classroom parties and field trips.

The focus of food allergy management shall be on prevention, education, awareness, communication and emergency response.

Authority

The SRC adopts this policy in accordance with applicable state and federal laws and regulations, and the guidelines established jointly by the PA Department of Education and PA Department of Health on managing severe or life-threatening food allergies in the schools.[1]

Definitions

Food allergy - an abnormal, adverse reaction to a food that is triggered by the body's immune system.
Medical Plans of Care - written documents individualized for a particular student with a severe or life-threatening food allergy to address the student's needs throughout the school day, including:

1. Emergency Care Plan (ECP) - a medical plan of care based on the information provided in the student’s Individualized Healthcare Plan (IHP) and distributed to all school personnel who have responsibilities for the student which specifically describes how to recognize a food allergy emergency and what to do when signs or symptoms of these conditions are observed. The electronic distribution through the district's student information system (SIS) will flag the student's food allergy(ies) and indicate the proper actions to be taken by school based staff.

2. Individualized Healthcare Plan (IHP) - a medical plan of care that provides written directions for school health personnel to follow in meeting the individual student’s healthcare needs. The plan describes functional problem areas, sets goals for overcoming problems, and lists tasks/interventions to meet the goals. The IHP shall include a Food Allergy Medical Management Plan developed by a student’s personal healthcare team and family, which shall outline the student’s prescribed healthcare regimen and be signed by the student’s board-certified allergist, family physician, physician assistant or certified registered nurse practitioner.

3. Related Services Component in Individualized Education Program (IEP) - that part of an IEP for a student receiving special education and related services which includes reference to development and implementation of an IHP and ECP for students with a documented severe or life-threatening food allergy as well as identifying the medical accommodations, educational aids and services to address the student’s needs.[2]

Section 504 Service Agreement – an individualized plan for a qualified student, which sets forth the specific related aids, services or accommodations needed by the student, which shall be implemented in school, in transit to and from school, and in all programs and procedures so that the student has equal access to the benefits of the school’s educational programs, nonacademic services and extracurricular activities.[3]

Guidelines

Prior to enrollment in the district or immediately after diagnosis of a food allergy, appropriate medical plans of care shall be developed for each student identified with a severe or life-threatening food allergy. Plans shall be developed by the school nurse, in collaboration with the student’s healthcare provider, the student’s parents/guardians, district or school nutrition staff, the student, if appropriate, and any other appropriate persons.
Where a medical plan of care is developed, it should carefully describe the plan for coverage and care of a student during the school day as well as during school-sponsored activities, which take place while the student, is under school jurisdiction during or outside of school hours. Medical plans of care shall include a component, which provides information to the school nutrition service regarding each student with documented severe or life-threatening food allergies.

Medical plans of care should include both preventative measures to help avoid accidental exposure to allergens and emergency measures in case of exposure, including administration of emergency medication. [4][5]

A complete set of a student’s current medical plans of care related to food allergies shall be maintained by the school nurse. Information or copies of the different components of a student’s medical plans of care shall be provided to appropriate personnel who may be involved in implementation of the medical plans of care.

Accommodating Students With Disabling Special Dietary Needs

Students with food allergies may be identified, evaluated and determined to be disabled, in which case the district shall make appropriate accommodations, substitutions or modifications in accordance with the student’s medical plans of care. [2][3]

The district must provide reasonable accommodations, substitutions or modifications for students with disabling dietary needs. The student’s physician shall determine and document if the student has a disabling dietary need. Examples of a dietary disability under this policy would include metabolic conditions (e.g., diabetes), severe food allergies or cerebral palsy.

Students who fall under this provision must have a written medical statement signed by a licensed physician, which shall be included with the student’s IHP. The medical statement must identify:

1. The student’s special dietary disability.
2. An explanation of why the disability restricts the student’s diet.
3. The major life activity(ies) affected by the disability.
4. The food(s) to be omitted from the student's diet.
5. The food or choice of foods that must be provided as the substitute.

Accommodating Students With Non-disabling Special Dietary Needs
The district may, at its discretion, make appropriate accommodations, substitutions or modifications for students who have a special dietary need but who do not meet the definition of disability, such as a food intolerance or allergy that does not cause a reaction that meets the definition of a disability. The decision to accommodate such a student shall be made on a case-by-case basis.

Students who fall under this provision must have a written medical statement signed by a physician, physician assistant or certified registered nurse practitioner identifying the following:

1. The medical or other special dietary condition, which restricts the student's diet.
2. The food(s) to be omitted from the student's diet.
3. The food or choice of foods to be substituted.

Confidentiality

The district shall maintain the confidentiality of students with food allergies, to the extent appropriate and as requested by the student’s parents/guardians. District staff shall maintain the confidentiality of student records as required by law, regulations and Board policy.[7][8][9]

Delegation of Responsibility

The Superintendent or designee, in coordination with the school nurse, school nutrition services staff, and other pertinent staff, shall develop administrative procedures to implement this policy or adopt as administrative procedures the suggested guidelines developed by the Pennsylvania Departments of Education and Health and National School Boards Association (NSBA) guidance on managing severe or life-threatening food allergies in district schools, including all classrooms and instructional areas, school cafeterias, outdoor activity areas, on school buses, during field trips, and during school activities held before the school day and after the school day.[10][11][12][13]

Administrative procedures should address the following components:

1. Identification of students with food allergies and provision of school health services.[14]
2. Development and implementation of individual written medical care plans.
3. Medication protocols, including methods of storage, access and administration.[4][5]
4. Development of a comprehensive and coordinated approach to creating a healthy school environment.[11]

5. Communication and confidentiality.[7][8][9]

7. Professional development and training for school personnel.

8. Awareness education for students.

9. Awareness education and resources for parents/guardians.

10. Monitoring and evaluation.

The Superintendent or designee shall annually notify students, parents/guardians, staff and the public about the district's food allergy management policy by publishing such in handbooks and newsletters, on the district's website, and through posted notices and other efficient methods.

(texting, phone calls or e-mails), sign up for specific types of updates they are interested in, as well as get online access to their child’s attendance and grades.

- Securing Input and Feedback
  - Provide updates on the latest happenings in the School District by inviting all stakeholder groups, including caregivers, students, staff and community members, to participate in the Superintendent’s Listening Tours, meetings with Assistant Superintendents, and other school-based meetings to receive input, get new ideas and solicit feedback to inform District policies and priorities.
  - Strengthening family and community involvement in school-based decision making through the District-wide implementation of the School Advisory Councils (SAC) – an advisory body that ensures school-wide representation when discussing matters that affect the whole school. Bringing together peer-elected representatives from all stakeholder groups: caregivers (who have a majority voice on the SAC), school leadership and staff, community partners and students (in high schools). SACs provide a platform for discussion and collaboration to ensure success of all students.
  - To provide more opportunities for caregivers to participate in dialogue to inform and influence policy and decision-making related to district-wide issues, the District will initiate activities to establish a District-wide Family Advisory Council.
  - Working closely with interested caregivers and community stakeholders to raise awareness about the importance of their involvement at the school and district level and encourage them to invest in building relationships with teachers, principals and school-based staff, attend Back to School Nights and parent-teacher conferences, stay in constant communication with the schools, visit their child’s classroom, come to school meetings and events, volunteer, join parent groups and assume leadership roles.

provides access to live interpretation at meetings, conferences, district and school-wide events, builds partnerships with immigrant and refugee serving organizations and supports families through workshops and trainings for immigrant and refugee families called Welcome Wagons. Welcome wagons are delivered in the community at the times convenient for the caregivers and in their native language. They address a variety of topics of importance to immigrant community, including literacy, college application process and financial aid resources, employment safety, access to health benefits, asthma management, HIV prevention, transition to life in the United States, acculturation and parent/child conflicts, child rearing practices and discipline, recognizing and seeking treatment for depression, recognizing domestic violence, and child abuse prevention.

  o Actively solicit and respond to feedback on the effectiveness of our schools and our key departments through surveys, focus groups, and town halls. The District will utilize and seek to increase participation in the Office of Research and Evaluation’s annual student survey and parent and guardian survey; support the operations division’s surveys and focus groups; invite students, caregivers, and community stakeholders to participate in focus groups to solicit ideas for improving the educational experiences of students; expand best practices for incorporating student voice; and schedule town hall meetings in all of the District’s learning networks.

  o The School District will provide customer service training to administrators, teachers, secretaries, central office staff, and support staff designed to improve interactions between families and schools.

  o Implement a customer service approach that moves toward family-friendly schools and offices that focuses on the following principles when engaging with families:

Those programs, activities and procedures will be planned and operated with meaningful consultation with caregivers of participating children.

• Consistent with section 1116, the School District will work with its schools to ensure that the required school-level family engagement policies meet the requirements of section 1116(b) of the ESSA, and each include, as a component, a school-parent compact consistent with section 1116(d) of the ESSA.

• In carrying out the Title I, Part A parent and family engagement requirements, to the extent practicable, the School District and its schools will provide full opportunities for the participation of caregivers with limited English proficiency, caregivers with disabilities, and caregivers of migratory children, including providing information and school reports required under section 1111 of the ESSA in an understandable and uniform format and, including alternative formats upon request, and, to the extent practicable, in a language caregivers understand.

• The School District will involve the caregivers of children served in Title I, Part A schools in decisions about how the 1 percent of Title I, Part A funds reserved for parent and family engagement is spent, and will ensure that not less than 90 percent of the one percent reserved goes directly to the schools for caregiver-related activities as agreed upon between the parents and the school administration with approval of the School Advisory Council (SAC) or similar organized parent/family groups and the school administration.

• The School District will ensure that all District schools host at least one parent meeting a year to involve all interested caregivers in the discussion of eligible family engagement programs and activities should be implemented at the school with the use of Title I funds set aside for family engagement, and reach an agreement with the caregivers on the expenditures and further collaboration in the implementation of these programs and activities.

• The School District will communicate to the schools that failure to comply with the requirements outlined in this section and in the rest of this policy may jeopardize their Title I funding.
The School District central office will host a series of caregiver meetings prior to the start of the annual District-wide budget process to solicit input on the allocation of federal dollars as contained in the District’s Consolidated Federal Application with the Pennsylvania Department of Education.

PART III. DESCRIPTION OF HOW THE DISTRICT WILL IMPLEMENT REQUIRED DISTRICT-WIDE PARENT AND FAMILY ENGAGEMENT POLICY COMPONENTS

THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF PHILADELPHIA will take the following actions to involve caregivers in the joint development of its district-wide parent and family engagement plan under section 1112 of the ESSA:

• Annually, the District will conduct an evaluation of the content and effectiveness of the district-wide parent and family engagement policy, activities and programs.

• In the spring, caregivers and community stakeholders are invited to participate in multiple focus groups to provide valuable feedback regarding the district-wide parent and family engagement policy. Caregivers are notified of the focus groups in multiple ways, email, flyers, robo calls, social media, and website announcements posted on the District’s website. During the focus groups, participants hear the latest updates and provide input on the new/revised policy. Additions/deletions/revisions are discussed and agreed upon during the meetings. Formatting and revisions are made after the meeting and then sent back to participants for comment. Families and community stakeholders unable to attend the focus groups in person have an opportunity to participate via online format, allowing them time to review the document and submit input and feedback electronically.

• Caregivers will be welcomed to submit feedback at any time throughout the year via the District’s website or by submitting comments to their child’s school. All feedback and input received will be used in consideration when updating the proceeding year’s policy.

• Once the district-wide parent and family engagement policy is finalized, the final document will be placed on the District’s website, hard copies will be available at Annual Title I meetings held at each school, and will also be distributed and sent home with all students.

• The School District will send a directive (signed by the Superintendent) to Assistant Superintendents and Principals regarding the distribution of the District’s policy to caregivers and staff.

THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF PHILADELPHIA will take the following actions to involve caregivers in the process of school review and improvement under section 1114 of the ESSA:
• All District schools shall have an active and engaged School Advisory Council (SAC) composed of majority family members, the school principal, teachers or other school based staff, students and community members, which champions the work for improved student achievement, effective teaching in the classroom, caregiver and community engagement in the educational process, and facilitates communication and support.

• Appropriate District representatives will be available to work collaboratively with caregiver leaders and the Office of Family and Community Engagement staff to provide District, learning network, and school level trainings on various aspects of Title I, including understanding school data, comprehensive school plans and budgeting process.

• Schools will develop means to obtain caregiver input and signatures of non-school district personnel on the Comprehensive Plan, Title I budget and School Improvement Plan (SIP).

• Provide adequate advance notice to caregivers of meetings and cancellation of meetings through newsletters, robo calls, bulletin boards, organized parent/family groups and notices sent home.

• Professional development will be provided to School Advisory Councils (school-based staff, students, families and community partners) or other organized parent/family groups to help understand the roles and responsibilities of all parties in this process.

• The District’s Translation and Interpretation Center and Multilingual Family Support will provide caregivers with limited English proficiency with full access to translation and interpretation services.

THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF PHILADELPHIA will conduct an annual District-wide Parent/Guardian survey to collect data on school level and District-wide family engagement outcomes, and will reach out to caregivers to get their input and feedback during the survey design and review process.

Survey results will be used to identify barriers to greater participation by caregivers in family engagement activities (with particular attention to caregivers who are economically disadvantaged, are disabled, have limited English proficiency, have limited literacy, or are of any racial or ethnic minority background). The School District will use the findings of the evaluation to design strategies for more effective family engagement, and to revise, if necessary (and with the involvement of caregivers) its family engagement policies.
