A special public meeting was held by the School Reform Commission on February 8, 2017 in the Auditorium of the School District of Philadelphia Education Center, 440 North Broad Street.

The meeting was convened at 4:10 p.m. by Chair Wilkerson.

Miles H. Shore, Interim General Counsel stated that notice of today’s special public meeting was published January 18, 2017 in the Philadelphia Daily News, Philly.com, and on the School District’s website. Mr. Shore also stated that the School Reform Commission met in Executive Session on February 1, 2017 to discuss quasi-judicial proceedings and met prior to today’s public meeting to discuss and deliberate on quasi-judicial proceedings.

Chair Wilkerson stated that this is a special meeting of the School Reform Commission. She stated that at this meeting, the SRC presides as a quasi-judicial body to grant or deny charter applications. In accordance, there is a proposal for a modified speakers’ policy.

Miles Shore presented a proposal to modify the speaker’s policy under SRC Policy No. 6. He stated that we do so because the SRC held public hearings, recorded 4 hours of public testimony, and received written comments from the public. Mr. Shore stated that this afternoon we will first hear from up to three representatives for each of our new charter school applications. Following this we will hear from no more than 12 speakers on general topics. Mr. Shore stated that these speakers were registered in advance of this afternoon’s action meeting. Registration for today’s meeting was closed at 4:00 p.m. on Tuesday, February 7th. He stated that every speaker will have 3 minutes to share their testimony.

Chair Wilkerson asked for a motion to approve the revisions to the speakers’ policy in Board Policy #6 for this meeting only.

The vote on the motion to approve the revisions to the speakers’ policy was as follows:

Ms. Kacer’s presentation included an overview of the PA Charter School Law (CSL) Requirements and the Philadelphia 2016-2017 New Charter Application Cycle. Ms. Kacer stated that CSL specifies guidelines for reviewing charter applications and specifies rigid timelines for the application review process. Ms. Kacer stated that five (5) applications were received by the November 15, 2016 deadline. However, two (2) applications were withdrawn by the applicants after submission. Ms. Kacer stated that the Charter Schools Office utilized regional and national expert evaluators in addition to the expertise of internal District staff. She stated that the initial public hearings were held in December 2016 and a second round was held in January 2017. She stated that written public comment was accepted through January 9, 2017.

*A complete copy of Ms. Kacer’s powerpoint presentation is on file with the Minutes of the School Reform Commission.

Zachary Epps, Office of the Superintendent, stated that at every School Reform Commission meeting, a representative from the Deaf-Hearing Communication Center is here to provide sign language interpretation of the proceedings. He stated that representatives from the Office of Family and Community Engagement are stationed in the lobby to help with interpretation services. Mr. Epps stated that the proceedings of this SRC meeting are being streamed live on the Internet at www.philasd.org/live and can be seen on PSTV’s Comcast Channel 52 and Verizon Fios Channel 20, and that the proceedings are also being recorded by The School District of Philadelphia. He stated that The School District’s recordings are protected by the Copyright Laws of the United States and may not be used in any manner without the express written consent of The School District. Mr. Epps stated that by participating in tonight’s meeting, members of the public acknowledge that the School District may use its recordings for any purpose without obtaining permission or paying any compensation.

Susan DeJarnett, Professor of Law, Temple University, stated that it is a myth that the SRC cannot consider the financial impact of charter growth in its consideration of applications. She stated that the myth seems to come from many Charter Appeal Board decisions that assert, with little analysis, that financial impact doesn’t count because it is an educational ground and it is speculative whether new charters will impose costs on the authorizing school districts.

Diane Payne expressed opposition to the approval of all new charter school applications. She also questioned why does the Charter School Office make recommendations on charter renewals but not new applications.

Barbara McDowell Dowdall expressed opposition to the approval of all new charter school applications. She expressed a commitment in the belief in the talents and dedication of our school staff to make every traditional public school in your system of care a school that any family would choose for their child.

Richard Migliore expressed opposition to the approval of all new charter school applications.

Chair Wilkerson made a few comments about this process. She stated that this process is a fundamental component of our work to increase quality options that bring innovation and expanded choices to Philadelphia students. Chair Wilkerson stated that this is also a moment where she would like to express pride in the work of our Charter Schools Office which has developed and overseen a rigorous review process to ensure that each of these applications has been thoroughly reviewed to determine whether they are prepared to be quality options. She stated that as has been noted, this year the review process included: 2 rounds of public hearings amounting in 13 hours of public hearings, an additional 4 hours of open public testimony, letters offering public comment, and 3 comprehensive evaluation reports – one for each applicant – reviewed by a team of internal and external evaluators. These reports are public and available on the Charter Schools Office’s website. Chair Wilkerson also expressed thanks to the families and community members who participated in this process, offering their comments and Chair Wilkerson stated that the School Reform Commission will vote on each application. Each application will receive either a vote to approve or a vote to deny and adopt an adjudication reviewing the cause for denial of the application.

The following resolutions were presented for formal action by the School Reform Commission:

Commissioner McGinley introduced a motion to deny the Charter and adopt an Adjudication. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Jimenez.

Commissioner Green stated that it has been the goal of the Charter School Office and many members of the SRC to have new applicants so that we have more options than the traditional people that seek new charter schools. He stated that he thought the academic portion of the application was excellent, but that the application lacks evidence of ground work in Kensington. He encouraged that the applicant resolve the issues in the adjudication and resubmit the application. Commissioner Jimenez stated that there is much uncertainty in the way that charter schools are funded. She stated that it is important that charter schools maintain a strong fund balance and expressed concerns about how the charter plans to maintain its fund balance.

Chair Wilkerson shared the concerns of the other Commissioners as well as the charter addressing the demographics of the community, namely the English Language Learners and the English as a second Language (ESL) students. She stated that budget has little capacity to address the needs of these students. Commissioner McGinley also expressed concerns about ELL support. He also expressed concerns about elements of martial arts as a key curriculum, social and emotional needs not be addressed in the application, and Restorative Practices and No Excuses models which are inconsistent with each other.

Commissioner McGinchy also stated that the students needed clarity in the learning environment. He also expressed concerns about certification and leadership issues.

The vote on the motion to deny the charter and adopt an Adjudication was as follows:

Deny: Ms. Jimenez, Dr. McGinley, Chair Wilkerson – 3

Commissioner Green introduced a motion to approve the Charter with Conditions. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Jimenez.

At the request of Chair Wilkerson, Ms. Reamer provided an outline of the proposed Conditions which include: approval of the application for grades K-4, with an enrollment of 500 students over the term of the Charter; academic conditions which will allow the school to add middle school grades 5-8, as they had originally proposed to serve those grades if they reach certain academic standards over two consecutive years; KIPP Parkside shall not give an enrollment preference to alumni of any KIPP schools or to children or dependents of staff members employed by other KIPP schools; and an assurance that KIPP shall not operate more than one school serving any of the same grade levels in the facility located at 5057 Parkside Avenue.

Commissioner Jimenez expressed concerns about equal access to KIPP schools. She stated that she would be inclined to deny the application had it not been for the inclusion of the condition regarding enrollment preference.

Commissioner Green stated that he did not understand the rationale for this condition and requested an explanation, which was provided by DawnLynne Kacer. Commissioner Green stated that he was opposed to the condition, but not the application. He also stated that the alumni condition is a fair point. Commissioner McGinley expressed support of the condition.

Chair Wilkerson expressed concerns with the application as initially introduced with respect to the middle school years, as there are concerns around academic performance in those years. She stated that she supports the condition on academic performance across those grades.

Commissioner McGinley stated that many of his concerns have been addressed by the conditions. However, Commissioner McGinley expressed concerns about the proposed Principal, who currently leads a school that is underperforming. He also expressed concerns around capacity, with KIPP proposing to open two schools at the same time, in the same year.

Commissioner McGinley offered an amendment to resolution SRC-3 that would include a condition to change the school opening year from 2018-2019 to 2019-2020.

The vote on the motion to amend Resolution SRC-3 was as follows:
