

2016-2017 Code of Student Conduct

The School District of Philadelphia

School Reform Commission

Chairman
Marjorie Neff

Commissioners
Feather Houstoun Farah Jimenez William Green Sylvia P. Simms

Superintendent
Dr. William R. Hite, Jr.

Deputy Chief,
Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities
Rachel Holzman, Esq.

The Code of Student Conduct will be in effect for a period of five years and is subject to change by the School Reform Commission (SRC).

Student Pledge

As a student of The School District of Philadelphia, I pledge to follow the Code of Student Conduct, to respect others and myself, and to treat everyone in my school community with fairness and consideration.

I understand and agree that school must be a positive and cooperative environment so that everyone can learn.

I understand that my daily attendance is the key to my success.

I understand that violence, disruptive behavior, and abusive language are unacceptable and will not be tolerated.

By signing this pledge, I understand and accept the responsibility of the Code of Student Conduct, for as long as I am a student in The School District of Philadelphia.

PLEASE NOTE: The Code of Student Conduct is available in full on the District website - <http://www.philasd.org>

The Code is available in hard copy from your principal or from the Office of Family and Community Engagement, phone number 215-400-4180 or website - <http://webgui.phila.k12.pa.us/offices/p/publicengagement>

For copies in languages other than English, please contact The Translation and Interpretation Center at phone number 215-400-4180, or consult the Center's website - <http://webgui.phila.k12.pa.us/offices/t/translation>

Purpose of the Code of Student Conduct

- To support the creation of a safe learning environment for all members of the school community.
- To provide clear and explicit expectations for social behaviors in all school settings.
- To provide administrators with interventions that address students' disruptive behaviors.

The safety and security of all school children is our highest priority, and The School District of Philadelphia is committed to providing a safe learning environment.

The Code of Student Conduct establishes policies, rules, and expectations for all school community members to learn, teach, and work together.

Consequences for students who endanger school safety or disrupt the educational experience of others are listed in detail. The Code of Student Conduct applies during school and on the way to and from school, including, but not limited to travel on School District vehicles, private transportation, and public transit systems.

Families and guardians are critical to our community. We ask that they please read and understand the Code of Student Conduct and School Student Handbook, and discuss them with their children. We understand that families and guardians know best how to make sure that their children understand the expectations that will lead to a safe and orderly school community.

This Code of Student Conduct provides definitions of disruptive behaviors. Although some definitions include examples, the behaviors include, but are not limited to, the examples given.

Parents, guardians, and caregivers who have any questions or concerns are encouraged to contact the school principal and/or the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities at phone number 215-400-4830 or website - <http://webgui.phila.k12.pa.us/offices/s/student-rights-and-responsibilities>

Responsibilities of Teachers

- Respect all members of the school community.
- Use professional judgment to prevent minor incidents from becoming major problems.

District Policy Regarding Behavior

Behavioral Expectations & Responsibilities

Responsibilities of Everyone

- Respect all members of the school community.
- Maintain a positive school climate by being responsible, respectful, and cooperative.
- Communicate Code of Student Conduct expectations for students and staff.

- Motivate students to live up to the expectations through positive reinforcement.
- Use good judgment to prevent minor incidents from becoming major problems.

Responsibilities of Administrators

- Respect all members of the school community.
- Implement the Code of Student Conduct and all disciplinary procedures in a fair and consistent manner.
- Provide students and parents whose first language is not English with translation and interpretation services free of charge.
- Inform all school personnel, parents, and students of discipline policies.
- Review and act upon allegations and requests from school personnel concerning violations.
- Teach proper behavior and positively reinforce rules of conduct.
- Maintain a learning environment that provides for academic success.
- Hold students accountable for disorderly conduct in school and on school grounds.
- Address rule violations with multiple strategies to keep students in school.
- Use professional judgment to prevent minor incidents from becoming major problems.

Responsibilities of Students

- Respect all members of the school community.
- Understand and comply with school rules and climate expectations, including the Code of Student Conduct and School Student Handbook.
- Comply with the School District's attendance, dress code, unlawful harassment, and bullying policies.
- Behave in a manner that focuses on academic success.
- Be responsible and accountable for following rules.

Responsibilities of Parents/Guardians and Advocates

- Respect all members of the school community.
- Respect, understand, and support school rules and regulations.
- Respect, understand, and support the policies of The School District of Philadelphia.
- Recognize and understand that school personnel must enforce school rules.
- Teach children to respect the rights of others and follow school rules.
- Emphasize the importance of being prepared for school and adhering to school rules to foster academic success.

Dress Code Expectations

Students are expected to follow their school's dress code so that their appearance does not constitute a health or safety hazard. School principals must determine and communicate the final decision regarding what is considered proper or improper attire. For information regarding a school's dress code, please consult the School Student Handbook.

A dress code violation shall not result in an exclusion from the classroom environment. Repeated uniform violations may result in a detention during non-instructional time.

Principals may declare spirit or club days and allow students to wear school spirit shirts, or schedule dress-up days (e.g., when school pictures are scheduled) or allow students to wear other attire such as uniforms or special dress for Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, athletes, cheerleaders, band, or chorus. Nothing in this Code of Student Conduct restricts or bans a student from wearing religious garb. Parents with concerns regarding religious dress are encouraged to discuss them with the principal.

Students shall have the right to dress in accordance with their stated gender identity and/or expression within the constraints of the school's dress code.

Additional questions concerning the dress code should be referred to the principal or his/her designee.

School Attendance Requirement

In Philadelphia County, school attendance is required for all children ages 6 to 17. "Attend school" means that a child must be enrolled and attend a public school, a charter school, a cyber charter school, or a private or religious-based school, or else participate in an approved home schooling program. Once a student of age 5 or older is registered for school, he/she is considered school-age and is required to attend school daily. If the student/family does not comply, they can be referred to DHS for truancy services.

Pennsylvania Department of Education regulations state that children are considered school age from the time they are admitted to the public school educational program until graduation from high school or the age of 21 is reached. During the time a child is of school age, he/she is entitled to attend the public schools in The School District of Philadelphia or a charter school. Students who turn 21 during the school term are entitled to finish out the school year.

Parents/guardians are expected to:

- Ensure that their children between the ages of six and 17 are enrolled in school and attend school regularly, on time, and for the entire school day.
- Emphasize the importance of on-time attendance in school, class, and supervised activities-and celebrate good attendance and success.
- Send their child to school every day prepared to participate and learn by providing a good night's sleep and breakfast.

- Establish reasonable, age-appropriate curfews and bedtimes.
- Make personal appointments for their child outside of the school day or during school breaks as often as possible.
- Ensure that their child receives the periodic student health examinations that are required by law.
- Schedule family vacations to coincide with school recesses.
- Call the school when their child is absent.
- Provide a written excuse for every absence when their child returns to school.
- Provide a written excuse for every late arrival and early departure.
- Provide the school with correct current addresses, emergency contacts, home, cell, and work telephone numbers, e-mail addresses at the beginning of each school year and update information whenever there are changes.
- Help develop and implement the individualized plan for their child's improved attendance when necessary.

When Can A Child Be Absent?

Sometimes students have to miss school. These "excused absences" apply under circumstances such as illness or injury, teen parent leave (six weeks or 30 school days) after the birth of a child, death/funeral-related absence, education-related trips or activities, suspension, and religious holidays. A written notice from a parent or guardian must be submitted to the school immediately upon a student's return to school. Such notice must include a valid telephone number or other means of contact for verification purposes. Certification of illness/injury/delivery is required if the absence extends for three or more consecutive days. The student/family has three days from the date of the absence to provide documentation to the school for an excused absence. After the third day, the school principal or designee has the discretion to approve or deny the note.

An "unexcused" or "illegal" absence occurs when a student is absent without a valid excuse in writing. That means that either no written notice was submitted to the school upon the student's return or that the reason provided in the notice was deemed invalid. Examples of invalid excuses include (but not limited to) babysitting, waking up late, or being on vacation with family.

Additional attendance and truancy information is available on The School District of Philadelphia's Attendance and Truancy website - <http://webgui.phila.k12.pa.us/offices/a/attendance--truancy>

Responses to Non-Attendance (Truancy)

A student who is absent from school without a valid excuse is considered "truant". A pattern of truancy can lead to a variety of interventions or penalties, depending upon the circumstances. On the school level, truancy can result in school-based interventions (Home Visits, Response to Interventions and Instruction (RtII), Attendance Plan, Academic Supports, Social Service Referrals, Truancy Court). Suspension from school or transfer to an alternative education setting is not a permissible response to truancy.

According to Compulsory School Attendance Law, a judge or hearing officer may require students and/or their parents/guardians to do any or all of the following:

- Appear at a hearing regarding the student's truancy.
- Perform reasonable school or community service for a period designated by the hearing officer.
- Complete a parenting education program.
- Obtain counseling or other supportive services, including a re-entry, or other service plan determined appropriate by authorized school officials.
- Pay a fine of up to $300.
- Pay court costs.
- Serve up to five days in county jail.

Children who are truant may be declared dependents of the state as part of the adjudication process.

For more information concerning Attendance and Truancy, refer to the website - <http://webgui.phila.k12.pa.us/offices/a/attendance--truancy>

Visitors to Campus

Parents and guardians are encouraged to visit schools and meet with teachers and administrators about their child progress. Visitors to campus must present themselves to the school office with proper identification. To provide safe and orderly learning environments, each visitor to public school buildings or grounds must receive authorization from the school principal or his/her designee.

The Code of Student Conduct applies to all students while traveling to and from school, using any mode of transportation, as well as during any school related event. Additionally, the Code applies to off ground and after-hours behavior if there is a nexus to the school and the learning environment at the school is disrupted.

When Does the Code Apply?

Some infractions of the Code of Student Conduct may also be crimes. The Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) lists the crimes that must be reported to the Philadelphia Police Department. Additionally, The School District of Philadelphia has a Memorandum of Referrals to the Philadelphia Police Dept.

Understanding with the Philadelphia Police Department outlining the Diversion Program that is an alternative to arrest & criminal prosecution.

All relevant Memorandum of Understanding are available on the School District of Philadelphia's website – <http://philasd.org/announcements/MOU-Between-PPD-and-SDP-2014.pdf>

Diversion Program

The Philadelphia Police Department shall divert a student from arrest if that student has committed a non-violent offense in school and has no prior arrests. In those cases, the student will receive services from the Department of Human Services.

Principals, teachers, and other school professionals hold high expectations for students' learning and behavior. Adults in schools help students achieve personal and academic success using a range of responses.

Classroom management strategies may include the following:

- Acquire a student's attention by calling his/her name in a calm voice.
- Address the student privately.
- State the problem behavior.
- State expected behavior and explain why the student needs to satisfy the expectation.
- Listen to the student's response and help student to recognize appropriate behaviors for him/herself.
- Indicate the specific consequence of continuing to engage in the problem behavior--and the positive consequences of good behavior.
- Ask the student to demonstrate the expected behavior.
- Acknowledge the student (i.e., thanks, praise, reward, etc.) for listening to you and/or exhibiting the appropriate behavior.
- Document the infraction on a discipline referral report (EH20 – Pink Slip).
- For more information on classroom management strategies please call the Office of School Climate and Safety.

School interventions may include the following:

- Create a Student Behavior Contract
- Before or after school detention
- Alternative volunteer service (e.g., soup kitchens, shelters)
- Cafeteria duty
- Community Conferencing/Restorative Justice
- School Counselor referral for individual and/or group counseling, and individual behavioral health assessment and resource linkage
- In-school work detail
- Lunch detention

*Consequence Levels are not mutually exclusive. If a student is referred to the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities, that student will also be suspended out of school for some period between 1-10 days. Please note disciplinary hearings ONLY apply to 6th -12th graders. There are NO out of school suspensions for the following violations: 1A,1B,1C,1D, 2, 3B and 4.

Kindergarten students may not be suspended unless another person suffers sserious bodily injury as a result of their acions.Any suspension over 3 days must be approved by an Assisstant Superintendent.

Pursuant to ACT 26, the Superintendent or their designee, may, after a hearing, decide to allow the student who brought a weapon to school to remain in the school.

Due Process

All students are to be treated with fairness and respect. Students have a right to be heard and are to be provided the opportunity to explain their version of events to administrators.

If you feel you need victim services, please contact the Office of Safe Schools Advocate at phone number 215-656-5381 or website – <http://www.phillyyossa.com>

At student conferences, students have the right to expect that school officials will:

Student Conference Procedures

1. Inform the student of the reason for a conference.
2. Give the student an opportunity to respond to allegation(s).
3. Discuss student's problem behavior and ways to correct it.
4. Inform the student of the corrective action and/or next steps to be taken.
5. Document the problem behavior and intervention.

Suspension Procedures

According to Pennsylvania law, suspension is defined as the denial to a student of the right to attend school and to take part in any school function for any period of up to 10 days. Suspensions must be preceded by notification to the student and parent/guardian in writing. For the purposes of The School District of Philadelphia's Code of Student Conduct, suspensions comprise three categories: In-school, short-term, and long-term.

In-School Suspensions

In-school Suspension is an exclusion from a classroom for disciplinary purposes that allow a student to remain under the direct supervision of school personnel. Direct supervision means school personnel are physically in the same location as students under their supervision.

Out-of-School Suspensions

Kindergarten students may not be suspended unless their actions result in serious bodily injury

Short-term Suspension is an exclusion from school and/or any school activity or function for a period of three or fewer school days. Students who are suspended must meet with the principal or his/her designee prior to the suspension. During the conference, the student has the right to the procedures described under Student Conference Procedures outlined in this Code of Student Conduct.

Long-term Suspension is an exclusion from school and/or any school activity or function for a period of four to 10 school days. Students who are given a long-term suspension are to participate in a student conference and a parent/guardian conference. During the parent conference, the student and parent/guardian have the right to the procedures described under Parent/Guardian Conference Procedures section in the Code of Student Conduct. In addition, prior approval by the Deputy Chief of the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities is required for all suspensions exceeding eight school days.

All referrals to the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities for a student discipline hearing must be preceded by an out of school suspension.

Parent Conference Procedures

At parent conferences, parents, guardians, and caregivers can expect that school administrators will adhere to the following protocol:

1. Notice of a conference must be provided to the parent/guardian in writing and either hand-delivered to the home, sent by certified mail, faxed, emailed, or communicated by other reasonable means.
2. When a student is suspended, a parent/guardian conference must be held no later than day three of the suspension.
3. At the conference, the parent/guardian or caregiver may request to review and have a copy of the student's records and any witness statements, with other student names and information redacted.
4. School administrators will discuss the student's problem behavior and ways to correct it.
5. School administrators will inform the parent/guardian of any further disciplinary action.

Student Discipline Transfer Procedures

Students in kindergarten through grade 5 are NOT eligible for disciplinary hearings.

Those students in kindergarten through grade 5 exhibiting a pattern or disruptive behavior(s) and/or committing serious violation(s) of the Code of Student Conduct are referred to the Response to Instruction and Intervention (RtII) process.

Students in grade 6 through 12 exhibiting a pattern of disruptive behavior(s) and/or committing serious violation(s) of the Code of Student Conduct may be referred to the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities for a student disciplinary hearing. Students who are referred receive full due process, including a hearing to determine whether the student will be transferred to a disciplinary school. These schools provide high-quality alternative education programs and supports to help students achieve their intellectual and social potential.

Students referred for a hearing will be suspended and provided the procedures indicated in the Suspension Procedures section of the Code of Student Conduct. The school must complete a Behavior Performance Review (BPR) for regular education students or a Manifestation Determination for special education students and share the results of the review at the parent/guardian conference. When a hearing is not scheduled during the period of a student's suspension, the student has the right to return to his/her school pending the outcome of the hearing, unless the behavior of the student continues to create such a risk of harm to the school community, than the school may request an interim placement. (See below for details of that process)

Students/Parents/Guardians have the right to a hearing to be conducted by an independent and impartial hearing officer. During the hearing process, parents/guardians may oppose the request for their student's removal from the school. At a hearing, students and parents/guardians have the right to:

- Present witnesses
- Present evidence relevant to the alleged infraction
- Request and ask questions of school district personnel
- Review student records in advance

If the hearing officer makes a finding that the alleged violation occurred, s/he shall determine an appropriate consequence within the applicable range of the matrix.

Interim Placements

Schools may request an interim placement for a regular education student with documentation that the student's continued presence poses a threat to the school community. In those cases when an interim assignment is granted by the Office of Student Rights and Responsibilities a hearing must be held as soon as possible after that assignment. For a special education student interim assignments will only be granted if there is documentation of weapons, drugs, or serious bodily injury.

Note: Please refer to the Discipline for Students with Disabilities section for discipline protocols for students with disabilities.

According to Pennsylvania law, expulsion is defined as an exclusion from school and any school activities for more than 10 school days. Students who have committed an offense subject to expulsion will also be suspended and have the right to the procedures found in the Suspension procedures section of the Code of Student Conduct.

The formal expulsion hearing process includes the following due process requirements:

Expulsion Procedures

1. Notification of the charges in writing by certified mail to the student's parent/guardian.
2. At least three days' notice of the time and place of the hearing, which shall include a copy of this policy, hearing procedures, and notice of the right to representation by legal counsel. A student may request the rescheduling of the hearing when he/she demonstrates good cause for an extension.
3. The hearing shall be private unless the student or parent/guardian requests a public hearing.
4. Representation by counsel at the parent's/guardian's expense and parent/guardian may attend the hearing.
5. Disclosure of the names of witnesses against the student and copies of their written statements or affidavits.
6. The right to request that witnesses against the student appear in person and answer questions or be cross-examined.
7. The right to testify, make arguments and present witnesses on the student's behalf.
8. A written or audio record shall be kept of the hearing and a copy made available to the student at the student's expense, or at no charge if the student is indigent.
9. The hearing shall be held within 15 school days of the notice of charges, unless a delay is mutually agreed to by both parties or is delayed by:
 - a) The need for laboratory reports from law enforcement agencies.
 - b) Evaluations or other court or administrative proceedings are pending due to a student's invoking his/her rights under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA).
 - c) Delay is necessary due to the condition or best interests of the victim in cases of juvenile or criminal court involving sexual assault or serious bodily injury.
10. Notice of a right to appeal the results of the hearing shall be provided to the student with the expulsion decision.

If a student is expelled by the School Reform Commission (SRC), the parent/guardian of the student has 30 days to provide written documentation that the student is in another educational program. If they are unable to find an alternative educational program, the School District of Philadelphia will provide for the student's education.

A student who has been permanently expelled from the School District of Philadelphia by the affirmative vote of a majority of the SRC may apply for readmission.

The SRC delegates complete authority for all readmission decisions to the Chief Executive Officer/Superintendent or his/her designee. Temporarily expelled students need not apply for readmission because they are automatically readmitted to The School District of Philadelphia at the end of the expulsion period. Readmission decisions are final and not subject to review by appeal to the SRC or the courts.

A student who has been permanently or temporarily expelled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the SRC, beginning in school year 2008-2009, may apply to The School District of Philadelphia to have the records of expulsion erased from the his/her records, or expunged. Expunging records occurs at the discretion of the Superintendent or his/her designee, and is not subject to review or appeal to the SRC or the courts.

Expunging Records for Expelled Students

The complete SRC Board Policy No. 233, including the criteria and process for readmission and/or impingement or records, may be found on the The School District of Philadelphia's website – <http://www.philasd.org/offices/administration/policies>

Discipline for Students with Disabilities

Suspensions for Special Education Students Identified as Intellectually Disabled

The District can only suspend students identified as Intellectually Disabled with either written agreement of the parent/guardian or the written approval of the Bureau of Special Education of the Pennsylvania Department of Education (PDE). PDE can be contacted by calling 717-783-6913 or visit their website – <http://www.pde.state.pa.us>.

Suspensions, Expulsion, and Transfer for All Other Disabled Students – Including Students with 504 Service Agreements

The District may suspend student's with disabilities and cease educational services for up to five consecutive schools days or 15 cumulative school days in one school year without providing special education procedural safeguards.

Schools must complete the following steps A through G below, for students with an Individualized Education Program (IEP) or Section 504 Service Agreements if any of the following are being considered:

1. Expulsion Referral.
2. Request to transfer to an Alternative School for disciplinary reasons (the school must file an EH-21).
3. Suspension for more than 10 consecutive days.
4. Suspension for more than 15 cumulative days.
5. Suspensions totaling more than 10 days in an academic school year and when there is a pattern or problem behavior.

Steps:

A team must convene a Manifestation Determination meeting within 24 hours of the misconduct, and will invite the parents/guardian. The team must:

- A. Provide written notice to the parent/guardian of the recommended disciplinary action and the date of the proposed Individualized Education Program (IEP) team meeting.
- B. During the IEP/Manifestation Determination meeting, the IEP team will review the student's most current evaluation, IEP and placement to determine if the referred misconduct is related to the student's disability. Two questions are to be answered by the school team at the manifestation meeting: (1) is the conduct caused by, or did it have a direct and substantial relationship to, the student's disability? or (2) was the conduct in question a direct result of the school's failure to implement the student's IEP?
- C. If the school team determines that the student's behavior is NOT a Manifestation of the Disability, school officials may apply the Code of Student Conduct. In no event, however, may the student be suspended without providing appropriate educational services for more than five consecutive or 15 cumulative school days in a school year.
- D. A Notice of Recommended Educational Placement (NOREP) must be issued with the results of this determination and a copy of the Procedural Safeguard Notice (PSN) must be given to the parent/guardian.

If parents or caregivers disagree with the decision, they can request an expedited Special Education Hearing and the Commonwealth-appointed hearing officer will review the manifestation determination.

- E. If necessary, the IEP team reviews and revises the existing behavior intervention plan or, as necessary, complete a functional behavior assessment and intervention plan to address the misconduct.
- F. The IEP team determines the appropriateness of an interim alternative educational setting, and as indicated, include in the IEP those services and modifications that will enable the student to continue to participate in the general education curriculum and help prevent the problem behavior from recurring.

G. If the student's behavior IS a Manifestation of the Disability, the student's placement may be changed if:

- (1) The student carried a dangerous weapon* to school or a school function;
- (2) The student knowingly possessed or used illegal drugs or sold or solicited the sale of a controlled substance while at school or at a school function; and
- (3) The student has inflicted serious bodily injury upon another person while at school, on school premises, or at a school function.

In these special circumstances and over parent/guardian objections, school officials may remove the student, by issuing a NOREP to an interim alternative education setting for not more than 45 school days.

- If the behavior is determined to be a manifestation of the student's disability, the conduct is not a "special circumstances" (see step G.1-3 above), and the student is substantially likely to cause injury to himself/herself or others if maintained in the current placement, the District may ask for an expedited hearing conducted by a Special Education Hearing Officer to obtain a 45-day interim placement.
- Students with disabilities, even if expelled, must be provided with a Free and Appropriate Public Education (FAPE).

*NOTE: A "dangerous weapon" is a weapon, device instrument, material, or substance that is used for, or is readily capable of, causing death or serious bodily injury. However, in the case of a pocketknife, blades less than two-and-one half inches in length are not considered dangerous weapons. A multi-tool containing a blade or cutting device is deemed a "dangerous weapon."

Glossary

Aggravated Assault – An act that causes serious physical harm or creates a substantial risk of serious physical harm to another student and/or school community member.

Breaking and Entering – The act of entering school property through force, as minimal as pushing open a door, and without authorization.

Bullying – Repeated intentional conduct that is directed at another student or students, in or outside a school setting, that is severe, persistent or pervasive, and that either (1) substantially interfere with a student's education, or (2) creates a hostile learning environment, or (3) substantially disrupts school operation. Bullying occurs within an interpersonal relationship where there is an imbalance or power (e.g., one person is physically larger, stronger, mentally quicker, or socially more powerful). The conduct may be physical, psychological, verbal, nonverbal, written, or electronic.

Cyber-bullying – Bullying that occurs through electronic communication devices including but not limited to social networking, e-mail, instant messaging, text messages, tweets, blogs, photo and video sharing, chat rooms, dash boards, or web sites.

Destruction of Property – Willful and malicious acts of damage or defacement to school property, including but not limited to graffiti, school pranks that cause a major disruption, or arson.

Disruption – Eating, drinking, being too loud, standing, running, loitering, throwing objects, talking out of turn, or other behavior that distracts other students from learning or teachers from instructing.

District – The School District of Philadelphia.

Drugs – Controlled substances and illegal substances, as well as "look-a-likes", which are defined as any substance that, by appearance, representation, or manner of distribution, would lead a reasonable person to believe that the substance is an illegal drug or other controlled substance.

Electronic Device – Any device that includes, but is not limited, to radios, walkmans, CD players, iPods, MP3 players, DVD players, handheld game consoles, personal digital assistants, cellular telephones, Blackberries, and laptop computers, as well as any new technology developed with similar capabilities.

Extortion – Obtaining money, property or services from another student and/or school community member through coercion.

Group Assault – An assault committed by multiple offenders. This does not refer to a mutual fight (see "Mutual Fighting" in this Glossary), but a situation where one or more victims are attacked by a larger group of students.

Harassment – Unwelcome verbal, written, graphic, or physical conduct relating to a student or school community member's gender, age, race, color, sexual orientation (known or perceived), gender identity expression (known or perceived), national origin, religion, disability, English language proficiency, socioeconomic status, and/or political beliefs. Harassment does not have to include intent to harm, be directed at a specific target, or involve repeated incidents.

Inappropriate Use of Electronic Devices – Including but not limited to sexting, videotaping fights, videotaping someone in a place where they have an expectation of privacy, or posting videos of inappropriate student conduct to a social media site that effect the school community in a negative manner.

Inappropriate Personal Items – Any object that is inappropriate for an educational setting (including, but not limited to, pornography, dice, playing cards, and other gambling instruments).

Intimidation – To induce fear or a sense of inferiority in another student and/or school community member.

Lateral Transfer – A transfer to another non-disciplinary academic setting.

Glossary (continued)

Mutual Fighting – If one or more students are engaged in a physical confrontation in which, after an investigation is conducted, it is unclear which student is the aggressor and which student is the victim.

Possession – Physical control over property (whether lost, found, or stolen), such as clothing, lockers, bags, and the contents contained therein.

Reckless Endangerment – Recklessly engaging in conduct that places or may place another person in danger of serious bodily injury.
