

"LEADERSHIP
AND LEARNING
ARE INDISPENSABLE
TO EACH OTHER."
-JOHN F. KENNEDY

Whew! You made it through the first month of school!

We are so proud of all the work you are doing in your schools! Through some visits and meetings with other administrators, we have seen the fruits of your labors even this early in the year! Keep up the great work! In order to best support your work, the Office of Teaching & Learning will compose a monthly bulletin sent out each month to HS SBTLs. We hope that you find this bulletin helpful in supporting you as the teacher leader of your building.

Special Announcements

High School Science Resources

The 19-20 Year at a Glance documents for Biology, Chemistry, Physics, Physical Science, and Environmental Science have been posted to the Science Curriculum Engine. The 19-20 Benchmark Guide for Biology has also been posted; this doc tells you which Eligible Content is tested on each Benchmark exam, and contains helpful information about Benchmarks and the Keystone exam. The Science Lending Library is now open to all SDP teachers, and we now have helpful guides for lab alignment with Biology, Chemistry, Physics, and Physical Science! (Environmental Science coming soon!) Please visit the library and make a reservation for equipment before it's all gone! See the attached document for links to all resources.

Things You Should Know About

➤ #TeachPHL

- *In order to provide support and resources for new teachers to our district, the Office of Teaching & Learning will be providing an ongoing PD series called #teachPHL: Unpacking Your First Year. All sessions will be held at Kensington-CAPA, from 4:30-6:30 pm, with Act 48 and PD pay provided for all classified as K-12 teachers. This twice-monthly series includes timely information from partner offices and community organizations, as well as skill-building sessions that focus on Danielson Domains 2 and 3. Every session will include an opportunity to debrief and connect. More information can be found HERE or by emailing Beth McAnally at emccanally@philasd.org SBTLs who would like to attend these PDs with their team of new teachers will be most welcome!
