

Read and Succeed with 20 in 20

Encourage your child to participate in the 20 in 20 Reading Initiative by reading 20 books in 20 weeks along with third graders across the city by April 24, 2023. With you as a role model, your child can grow their passion and excitement for reading. Here's how:

Set Time to Read

Set up time for your child to read every day. Get started with this set of 10 books from your school. Then visit scholastic.com/readandgrow to access the Scholastic BookFlix library where you'll find 10 more books to read! You may also include books from home or your school library.

Talk About Books

Have quick book chats with your child to encourage them to keep reading. Visit scholastic.com/readandgrow for activity sheets, growth questions, and literacy tips you can use to keep your child engaged with the books.

Get Prizes and Rewards

Students who successfully complete the 20 in 20 Reading Initiative will receive an incentive for all their hard work! Remind your child to keep reading and track their progress.
