

Build Student Success With 20 in 20

Challenge your third grade students to participate in the School District of Philadelphia's Office of Academic Supports' 20 in 20 Reading Initiative by reading 20 books in 20 weeks. Send home the enclosed book packs with ten books to get your young scholars started.

1
Send Books Home

2
View Online Activities

3
Look Out for Prizes

Books to Build Home Libraries

Send home these high-interest, culturally-relevant books to enhance your students' joy of reading, cultivate their literacy skills, and expand their reflections on themselves and the world around them.

SELF AWARENESS

Big Foot and Little Foot • 700L

Looking Like Me • 560L

The Used-to-Be Best Friend • 610L

Mountain Mission • 740L

Juana & Lucas • 870L

CONFRONTING CHALLENGES

Manjhi Moves a Mountain • 610L

Vera Vance: Comic Star • 850L

Kids Who Are Changing the World • 870L

Mia Mayhem vs. the Super Bully • 510L

The Boy Who Harnessed the Wind • 850L

District Support for Independent Reading

The 20 in 20 Reading Initiative was developed to encourage third-grade students to read 20 books in 20 weeks by April 24, 2023. Students who successfully complete the 20 in 20 Reading Initiative will receive an incentive for all their hard work! (Read on to learn about resources that support the initiative.)

Need Support?

AskTerica@scholastic.com

Optional Literacy Resources for Teachers

As third-grade teachers, we know you appreciate finding valuable resources to support the innovative work you do in your classroom. The scholastic.com/readandgrow website contains a range of resources to support literacy. Visit the site to access:

- Themed activity sheets to help students make personal connections to reading. Themes include: self awareness and confronting challenges
- Scholastic BookFlix digital library with paired fiction and nonfiction books and articles to support additional reading
- Home Base kids literacy platform with book games, virtual author Q&As, and creative spaces

[scholastic.com/
readandgrow](https://www.scholastic.com/readandgrow)
Password: Read